A Writer Teaches Writing:

A Writer Teaches Writing Donald Morison Murray, 1985 Writer Identity and the Teaching and Learning of Writing Teresa Cremin, Terry Locke, 2016-12-01 Writer Identity and the Teaching and Learning of Writing is a groundbreaking book which addresses what it really means to identify as a writer in educational contexts and the implications for writing pedagogy. It conceptualises writers' identities and draws upon empirical studies to explore their construction, enactment and performance. Focusing largely on teachers' identities and practices as writers and the writer identities of primary and secondary students, it also encompasses the perspectives of professional writers and highlights promising new directions for research. With four interlinked sections, this book offers nuanced understandings of how writer identities are shaped and formed. Insights into how classroom practice changes when teachers position themselves as writers alongside their students. New understandings of what this positioning means for students' identities as writers and writing pedagogy and illuminating case studies mapping young people's writing trajectories. With an international team of contributors, the book offers a global perspective on this vital topic and makes a new and strongly theorised contribution to the field. Viewing writer identity as fluid and multifaceted, this book is important reading for practising teachers, student teachers, educational researchers and practitioners currently undertaking postgraduate studies. Contributors include Teresa Cremin, Terry Locke, Sally Baker, Josephine Brady, Diane Collier, Nikolaj Elf, Ian Eyres, Theresa Lillis, Marilyn McKinney, Denise Morgan, Debra Myhill, Mary Ryan, Kristin Stang, Chris Street, Anne Whitney and Rebecca Woodard.

Writing Through Writer's Block Aaron Colton, 2025-10-28. Recent fiction is teeming with blocked writers from John Updike's Henry Bech to Stephen King's Paul Sheldon and Mike Noonan. From David Foster Wallace's Mark Nechtr to the autofictional figures of Jordan Castro Salvador Plascencia Nam Le, Ben Lerner, Sheila Heti and Andrew Martin. Writing Through Writer's Block offers the first book-length analysis of the archetype of the blocked writer. From the scenes of writer's block enacted in these fictions, we gather pedagogical lessons that are germane to writers of all kinds: creative and academic, advanced and novice, and particularly useful for the growing contingency of faculty whose teaching responsibilities lie in both literature and academic writing.
