Hersch, 2018 A Social History of American Technology Second Edition tells the story of American technology from the tools used by its earliest inhabitants to the technological systems cars and computers aircraft and antibiotics that we are familiar with today Ruth Schwartz Cowan and Matthew H Hersch demonstrate how technological change has always been closely related to social and economic development and examine the important mutual relationships between social history and technological change

They explain how the unique characteristics of American cultures and American geography have affected the technologies that have been invented manufactured and used throughout the years and also the reverse how those technologies have affected the daily lives the unique cultures and the environments of all Americans

Technology in America Alan I. Marcus, Howard P. Segal, 2018-04-05 Now in a thoroughly updated new edition this successful textbook surveys the history of technology in America from the 1600s to the 21st century Alan I Marcus and Howard P Segal explore the effect society culture politics and economics have had upon technological advances and place the evolution of American technology within the broader context of the development of systems such as transportation and communications This unique book connects phenomena such as colonial printing presses with the American Revolution early photographs with the creation of an allegedly unique American character and high tech advances in biotechnology with a growing desire for individual autonomy This is an ideal resource for undergraduate and postgraduate students of the history of technology the history of science and American history

The Machine in America Carroll Pursell, 2007-03-15 From the medieval farm implements used by the first colonists to the invisible links of the Internet the history of technology in America is a history of society as well This title analyzes technology s impact on the lives of women and men It also discusses the innovation of an American system of manufactures
