A Touch Of Evil:

Film Noir Reader 4 Alain Silver, James Ursini, 2004-11 This text identifies a handful of plot elements that consistently recur within film noir and analyses in depth the memorable pictures that while being vivid prototypes of certain cinematic themes bend and break their moulds to find new ways to enthrall and frighten us

Aesthetic Practices and Politics in Media, Music, and Art Rocío G. Davis, Dorothea Fischer-Hornung, Johanna C. Kardux, 2010-09-13 This volume analyzes innovative forms of media and music art installations television commercials photography films songs telenovelas to examine the performance of migration in contemporary culture Though migration studies and media studies are ostensibly different fields this transnational collection of essays addresses how their interconnection has shaped our understanding of the paradigms through which we think about migration ethnicity nation and the transnational Cultural representations intervene in collective beliefs Art and media clearly influence the ways the experience of migration is articulated and recalled intervening in individual perceptions as well as public policy To understand the connection between migration and diverse media the authors examine how migration is represented in film television music and art but also how media shape the ways in which host country and homeland are imagined Among the topics considered are new mediated forms for representing migration widening the perspective on the ways these representations may be analyzed readings of enactments of memory in trans and inter disciplinary ways and discussions of globalization and transnationalism inviting us to rethink traditional borders in respect to migration nation states as well as disciplines

The Fictions of Stephen Graham Jones Billy J. Stratton, 2016-12-01 Even as Stephen Graham Jones generates a dizzying range of brilliant fiction his work remains strikingly absent from scholarly conversations about Native and western American literature owing in part to his unapologetic embrace of popular genres such as horror and science fiction Steeped in dense narrative references literary and historical allusions and experimental postmodern stylings his fiction informs a broad array of literary and popular conversations The Fictions of Stephen Graham Jones is the first collection of scholarship on Jones's ever expanding oeuvre The diverse methodologies that inform these essays from Native American critical theory to poststructuralism and gothic noirism illuminate the unique complexity of Jones's narrative worlds while positioning his works within broader conversations in literary studies and popular culture Jones challenges at every turn the notions of what constitutes Native American literature and what it means to be a Native American writer Contributing editor Billy J Stratton foregrounds these heavily contested questions and their ongoing relevance to readers and critics alike

The Routledge Handbook of Ethnicity and Race in Communication Bernadette Marie Calafell, Shinsuke Eguchi, 2023-10-03 A much needed text that takes stock of issues of ethnicity and race in communication studies this book presents an overview of the most cutting edge research theory and methods in the subject and advocates for centering ethnicity and race in the communication studies discipline This handbook brings together a diverse group of both senior and up and coming scholars to offer original scholarship in race and ethnicity in communication studies emphasizing various analytical perspectives including but not limited to global transnational diasporic feminist queer trans and disability approaches While centering ethnicity and race contributors also take an intersectional perspective in their approach to their topics and chapters The book features examination of specific subfields like Whiteness studies Latina o x communication studies Asian Pacific American communication studies African American communication and culture and Middle East and North African communication studies The text is oriented to graduate students and researchers within communication studies as well as media studies cultural studies critical race and ethnic studies American studies sociology and education while still being accessible to upper level undergraduate students

Kiss the Blood Off My Hands Robert Miklitsch, 2014-09-15 Consider the usual view of film noir endless rainy nights populated by down at the heel boxers writers and private eyes stumbling toward inescapable doom while stalked by crooked cops and cheating wives in a neon lit urban jungle But a new generation of writers is pushing aside the fog of cigarette smoke surrounding classic noir scholarship In Kiss the Blood Off My Hands On Classic Film Noir Robert Miklitsch curates a bold collection of essays that reassesses the genre s iconic style history and themes Contributors analyze the oft overlooked female detective and little examined aspects of filmmaking like love songs and radio aesthetics discuss the significance of the producer and women s pulp fiction and investigate topics as disparate as Disney noir and the Fifties heist film B movie back projection and blacklisted British directors At the same time the writers collective reconsideration shows the impact of race and gender history and sexuality technology and transnationality on the genre As bracing as a stiff drink Kiss the Blood Off My Hands writes the future of noir scholarship in lipstick and chalk lines for film fans and scholars alike Contributors Krin Gabbard Philippa Gates Julie Grossman Robert Miklitsch Robert Murphy Mark Osteen Vivian Sobchack Andrew Spicer J P Telotte and Neil Verma
