Globalisation, FDI, Regional Integration and Sustainable Development Anthony Bende-Nabende, 2017-10-05 This title was first published in 2002 Anthony Bende Nabende focuses on the ongoing globalization process which has sparked an unprecedented world wide debate He provides a one stop centre for a balanced coverage of the theoretical empirical and policy issues linking globalization with foreign direct investment regional economic integration and economic growth and sustainable development This stimulating book comprehensively explores the theoretical and empirical literature inter linking the aforementioned factors from the anti globalization activists viewpoint and from the pro globalization proponents perspective It proposes policies that individual countries should pursue based on the recognition that globalization generates both positive and negative effects These comprise policies required to maximise the economic benefits globalization may generate and those that aim to eliminate or at least minimize the negative development oriented effects globalization may engender and hence to propel sustainable development The book will be an essential guide for students academics and those involved in international economics environmental studies international relations and growth and development studies

Asean Economic Integration: Trade, Foreign Direct Investment, And Finance Michael G Plummer, 2009-07-17

Given the rapid emergence of regional economic arrangements in Asia especially in Southeast Asia it is useful to understand clearly what regionalism implies for the region as well as to take stock as to the far reaching and complicated effects of formal economic cooperation and integration This book allows the reader to better understand the relevant international policies of the Southeast Asian economies and to appreciate the potential lessons for other developing regions It also focuses on the regionalism trend with an explicit application to ASEAN as well as the implications of regionalism in the developed countries The goal of this book is to survey the economics and political economy of regionalism in the ASEAN context from a variety of perspectives and using various techniques from standard economic analysis of preferential trading arrangements to the political economy analysis of institutions Its approach is comprehensive in that it includes ASEAN economic integration in the areas of trade foreign direct investment and finance Presentation of the material is designed to be accessible to non technical audiences without sacrificing the rigor expected by economists and other experts
