The Housewife, 1891 Gracey's Meat Hygiene David S. Collins, Robert J. Huey, 2015-01-20 GRACEY S MEAT HYGIENE Gracey's Meat Hygiene 11th edition is the definitive reference for veterinarians working in meat hygiene control. This new edition of a classic text reflects the recent significant changes in science, legislation, and practical implementation of meat hygiene controls in the United Kingdom, Europe, and worldwide since the 10th edition was published in 1999. This book is an excellent practical guide for teaching food hygiene to veterinary students worldwide, laying the foundations of food animal anatomy, the humane slaughter of animals for food, and practical production hygiene. New chapters address the increased concern of operators, inspectors, and the public to issues of animal welfare and recognize the role of the profession and interest from the consumer in environmental protection. Key features include the following: Fully updated new edition in a refreshed design with colour photographs and illustrations throughout. Includes new content on meat hygiene inspection covering the components of an integrated food safety management system as well as animal health and welfare controls in the farm to fork system. A practical approach to health and safety in meat processing is outlined by identifying the hazards and then describing how these can be best controlled. With contributions from veterinary and industry experts, this edition is both a valuable teaching aid and a practical reference for veterinarians and all food business operators and their staff.

The International Handbook of Animal Abuse and Cruelty Frank R. Ascione, 2010. Animal abuse as a predictor of abuse against humans has been documented extensively. This book offers an up-to-date compendium that covers the historical, legal, research, and applied issues related to animal abuse and cruelty.

Trading Cultures Heung Wah Wong, Keiji Maegawa, 2015-06-01. This collection of original essays interrogates the nature of intercultural and intra-cultural encounters through anthropological case studies of Asia, Africa, and the Pacific Islands. The chapters show that parties involved in intercultural or intra-cultural encounters, each equipped with their own means and motivated by their own ends, reciprocally engage each other in a dynamic emergent relationship. Through detailed empirical research, this volume seeks to advance the open question of how we may theorize the cultural interface.

Islam, Custom and Human Rights Lutforahman Saeed, 2021-10-29. For the first time, the author has explored the intertwinement of written law, Islamic law, and customary law in the highly complex Afghan society, being deeply influenced by traditional cultural and religious convictions. Given these facts, the author explores how to bridge the exigencies of a human rights-driven penal law and conflicting social norms and understandings by using the rich tradition of Islamic law and its possible openness for contemporary rule of law standards. This work is based on ample field research in connection with a thorough analysis of the normative contexts. It is a landmark since it offers broadly acceptable and thus feasible solutions for the Afghan legal practice. The book is of equal interest for scientists and practitioners interested in legal, religious, social, and political developments concerning human rights and regional traditions in the MENA region.
