Language as Calculus vs. Language as Universal Medium Maren Kusch, 1989-06-30 I first became interested in Husserl and Heidegger as long ago as 1980 when as an undergraduate at the Freie Universität Berlin I studied the books by Professor Ernst Tugendhat Tugendhat's attempt to bring together analytical and continental philosophy has never ceased to fascinate me and even though in more recent years other influences have perhaps been stronger I should like to look upon the present study as still being indebted to Tugendhat's initial incentive It was my good fortune that for personal reasons I had to continue my academic training from 1981 onwards in Finland Even though Finland is a stronghold of analytical philosophy it also has a tradition of combining continental and Anglosaxon philosophical thought Since I had already admired this line of work in Tugendhat it is hardly surprising that once in Finland I soon became impressed by Professor Jaakko Hintikka's studies on Husserl and intentionality and by Professor Georg Henrik von Wright's analytical hermeneutics While the latter influence has at least in part led to a book on the history of hermeneutics the former influence has led to the present work My indebtedness to Professor Hintikka is enormous Not only is the research reported here based on his suggestions but Hintikka has also commented extensively on different versions of the manuscript helped me to make important contacts found a publisher for me and last but not least was a never failing source of encouragement      Practical grammar of the Somali language, with a manual of sentences, by E. de Larajasse and C. de Sampont Évangéliste de Larajasse, 1897      The Origin and Philosophy of Language Ludwig Noiré, 1917      A Dictionary of the Numípu Or Nez Perce Language Anthony Morvillo, 1895      The Psychology of Language Walter Bowers Pillsbury, Clarence Linton Meader, 1928      A Dictionary of the Otchipwe Language, Explained in English Frederic Baraga, 1882      A dictionary of the English language, abridged from Webster's International dictionary Noah Webster, 1892      An International Language Otto Jespersen, 1929 A plea for an artificial international auxiliary language and a presentation of the author's scheme for such a language to be designated Novial      A Walk in the Landscape of Language Simon Young, 2018-10-12 The works of Heidegger are perhaps the most influential in contemporary philosophy yet they are not only least readily understood but even what understanding means in this context is usually overlooked This book addresses Heidegger's dense prose seeking an understanding of language which leads to a journey that allows the emergence of the terrain revealed when travelling with the philosopher This book offers an experience of walking with Heidegger when considering language but refuses a conceptual analysis of the text As such it offers a profound experience and yet refuses to reduce Heidegger's texts to simple formulae The texts used include Heidegger's magnum opus Being and Time and many of his essays and lectures as well as drawing on the writings of other thinkers      Publications of the Modern Language Association of America Modern
