Challenges To Authority:

Challenges to Authority and the Recognition of Rights Catharine MacMillan, Charlotte Smith, 2018-08-16 A unique volume demonstrating how law changes by reason of challenges to authority which seek the recognition of rights That Precious Strand of Jewishness That Challenges Authority Leon Rosselson, 2017-07-01 For my parents and grandparents Jewish identity in religion culture and language was a given Not so for me I m not religious not a Zionist so in what consists my Jewishness Is a love of chopped liver and a belief that chicken soup cures all ills enough And does it matter This is the story of my search for answers It is an argument with myself with song lyrics to embellish the argument Like so many of those others in Britain of Jewish lineage songwriter and award winning folk singer Leon Rosselson is descended from antecedents who fled pogroms in eastern Europe Pertinently he questions what being a Jew means is it adherence to Judaism as a religion an ethnicity a citizen of Israel or someone who eats chicken soup with knedlach He describes clearly and with historical insight how any concept of Jewishness can involve all of those things and more In his own life he has decided to pick and choose from this tradition and history and build on what he deems to be the progressive humane and universalist values of that Jewish background Rosselson is a strong supporter of Palestinian rights seeing in the victimization of Palestinians by the state of Israel parallels with historical Jewish persecution He concludes this short essay by stating I share with the growing number of Jews in the diaspora who place solidarity with the oppressed above demands of tribalism and with those in Israel who dare to stand against the powers that be The Media and Religious Authority Stewart M. Hoover, 2016-08-02 As the availability and use of media platforms continue to expand the cultural visibility of religion is on the rise leading to questions about religious authority Where does it come from How is it established What might be changing it The contributors to The Media and Religious Authority examine the ways in which new centers of power and influence are emerging as religions seek to brand themselves in the media age Putting their in depth incisive studies of particular instances of media production and reception in Asia Africa Latin America and North America into conversation with one another the volume explores how evolving mediations of religion in various places affect the prospects aspirations and durability of religious authority across the globe An insightful combination of theoretical groundwork and individual case studies The Media and Religious Authority invites us to rethink the relationships among the media religion and culture The contributors are Karina Kosicki Bellotti Alexandra Boutros Pauline Hope Cheong Peter Horsfield Christine Hoff Kraemer Joonseong Lee Alf Linderman Bah yyah Maroon Montr Aza Missouri and Emily Zeamer with an afterword by Lynn Schofield Clark Teach Them to Challenge Authority Gregory S. Prince, 2008-04-15 Eminent educator Greg Prince examines how colleges should set an example of behaviour to students in order to maximise their success The author investigates both the national and international implications and reveals how these simple measures will revitalise not only the world of education but also wider society Arbital Institutions Under Scrutiny: ASA Special Series No. 40 Philipp Habegger, Daniel Hochstrasser, Gabrielle

Nater-Bass, Urs Weber-Stecher, 2013-03-01 The internal organisation and practices of operation of arbitral institutions are often not transparent and are rarely addressed in public discussions among arbitration practitioners To shed some light on aspects of the internal organisation and operation of these institutions ASA asked the MIDS Geneva LLM in International Dispute Settlement to conduct a broad survey of arbitral institutions based on a detailed questionnaire The results are summarized in Chapter 1 of this volume The further Chapters of this volume contain the presentations of the speakers at the ASA conference of 9 September 2011 They discuss responsibilities of the institutions in administering arbitration cases under their sets of rules in the different phases of an arbitral proceeding from the constitution of the arbitral tribunal to supervision and quality control to financial aspects such as cost control and the potential liability of arbitrators In sum this volume of the ASA Special Series contains a lot of interesting information for all arbitration practitioners and users of institutional arbitration services The American Decisions, Containing All the Cases of General Value and Authority Decided in the Courts of the Several States, 1879 The Handbook of Religion and Communication Yoel Cohen, Paul A. Soukup, 2023-02-14 Provides a contemporary view of the intertwined relationship of communication and religion The Handbook of Religion and Communication presents a detailed investigation of the complex interaction between media and religion offering diverse perspectives on how both traditional and new media sources continue to impact religious belief and practice across multiple faiths around the globe Contributions from leading international scholars address key themes such as the changing role of religious authority in the digital age the role of media in cultural shifts away from religious institutions and the ways modern technologies have transformed how religion is communicated and portrayed Divided into five parts the Handbook opens with a state of the art overview of the subject s intellectual landscape introducing the historical background theoretical foundations and major academic approaches to communication media and religion Subsequent sections focus on institutional and functional perspectives theological and cultural approaches and new approaches in digital technologies The essays provide insight into a wide range of topics including religious use of media religious identity audience gratification religious broadcasting religious content in entertainment films and religion news reporting about religion race and gender the sex religion matrix religious crisis communication public relations and advertising televangelism pastoral ministry death and the media online religion future directions in religious communication and more Explores the increasing role of media in creating religious identity and communicating religious experience Discusses the development and evolution of the communication practices of various religious bodies Covers all major media sources including radio television film press digital online content and social media platforms Presents key empirical research real world case studies and illustrative examples throughout Encompasses a variety of perspectives including individual and institutional actors academic and theoretical areas and different forms of communication media Explores media and religion in Judeo Christian traditions Islam Buddhism Hinduism religions of Africa Atheism and others The Handbook of Religion and Communication is an essential resource for
