Changing University Teaching Reflections On Creating Educational Technologies:

Changing University Teaching Terry Evans, Daryl Nation, 2012-10-12 Behind the hype of the virtual university lies real change in the way practitioners approach university teaching This book focuses on the changes to teaching both on and off campus that have either come from or themselves influenced the development of educational technologies EBOOK:

Towards Strategic Staff Development in Higher Education Richard Blackwell, Paul Blackmore, 2003-07-16 This book focuses on strategic staff development in higher education a sector in which it has been largely viewed as an operational activity with little organizational relevance The book demonstrates how staff development needs to be based on modern theories of organizational learning aligning itself with institutional and departmental needs as well as the wants and needs of individual staff The book takes a broad definition of staff development and seeks to cover all aspects of the academic role and the interests of all staff The traditional focus on teaching and learning is covered but not to the exclusion of other aspects or the interface between different roles In order to achieve a strategic focus authors are drawn from a range of backgrounds including senior staff with strategic leadership roles The book is therefore directed to a wider readership than the community of staff development professionals and designed partly to challenge the dominant discourse and established priorities of staff developers Towards Strategic Staff Development in Higher Education seeks to combine scholarly review of relevant literature with practical strategies and suggestions for the intended readership principally senior staff heads of department and staff development professionals

Learning and Teaching with Technology Som Naidu, 2003-12-16 Exploring the creative opportunities opened up by ICT in the modern classroom this text presents an authoritative survey of ICT's impact upon core teaching functions and draws from the experiences of leading practitioners in the field Online Learning and Teaching with Technology David Murphy, Rob Walker, Graham Webb, 2013-10-31 In the 21st century technology has become an essential part of teaching and learning This manual provides practical advice on teaching in a wide range of technologies including the internet and multimedia packages Using case studies to illustrate the key concepts this book aims to promote student learning and understanding and show educators how to use technology to motivate learners and encourage productive interaction

Encyclopedia of Distance Learning Howard, Caroline, Boettcher, Judith V., Justice, Lorraine, Schenk, Karen D., Rogers, Patricia L., Berg, Gary A., 2005-04-30 This encyclopedia offers the most comprehensive coverage of the issues concepts trends and technologies of distance learning More than 450 international contributors from over 50 countries Provided by publisher Planning and Management in Distance Education Santosh Panda, 2003-12-16 Online distance education and training is being adopted throughout the world as a cost effective flexible answer to widening access for all This enthusiasm has led to many initiatives and policies from governments to encourage online learning at international national regional and institutional levels Also changes in distance learning continue to take place as a result of educational discourse and innovations in ICT Distance learning courses are therefore under pressure to reform and successful management of external policy planning and internal change management is key to the implementation and maintenance of reforms World class leaders researchers and practitioners share their experiences research and critical reflection in this book providing guidance on how to balance quality management with quality learning Subjects covered include policy and planning institutional management management of processes quality assurance and accreditation and internationalization This book will aid anyone involved in running or wanting to implement distance education to effectively manage an online learning programme

Reflective Teaching, 2004

Reclaiming Universities from a Runaway World Melanie Walker, Jon Nixon, 2004 Examines the idea that the defining feature of academic professional identity is the search for understanding This work shows how questions of teaching research and management in universities are also questions about the struggle over deliberative democracy It details how higher education can contribute to building a prosperous society
