The Balance William Dana Orcutt, 1922 Higbie v. Chase, 306 MICH 577 (1943), 1943 75 The Novel in the Balance Arthur Michael Saltzman, 1993 The Novel in the Balance investigates the issue of balance as a thematic and stylistic feature of contemporary American fiction In his refreshingly jargon free examination of modern and postmodern writings Arthur

Saltzman cites the hovering poised provisional quality of contemporary fiction as the impetus for his study and he distinguishes paradox as the common philosophical premise and formal principle uniting the works he considers here. Through a comparative analysis of numerous exemplary modern and postmodern novels Saltzman identifies the strategies employed to produce a state of equilibrium between opposing forces and opposing viewpoints. Whereas previous fiction embraced formal and philosophical resolution, contemporary fiction, as Saltzman contends, playfully invites disjunction and rupture into its portrayal of reality. Inspired by its subject, the book's structure mirrors the balance found throughout each of the spotlighted works. In the six central chapters, Saltzman juxtaposes compatible novels and then interprets them against or in terms of one another. He compares the work of John Hawkes and Marilynne Robinson, E. L. Doctorow and Tim O'Brien, Don DeLillo and Joseph McElroy, Robert Coover and Paul Auster, Richard Powers and Stanley Elkin, Leslie Marmon Silko and Charles Johnson and others. As he probes the issue of balance in recent American fiction, Saltzman joins the ongoing debate between modernist orthodoxies and postmodernist objections and amplifications.
