Literary Geographies and the Work of David Ireland Brett Heino,2025-08-30 This book explores the spatiality of post World War II Australian society through the vehicle of David Ireland s literature Employing concepts from radical geography and structural Marxist literary theory it posits the existence of a spatial unconscious of literary texts whereby they encode the spatiality of the society into which they are born By mining the spatial unconscious of Ireland s texts we can create a complex unique and highly fertile atlas of the spaces and places of Australia In particular Ireland s works ideologically handle the contradictory relationship between capitalism s regime of abstract space rooted in the production process and the state and the meaningful social places that can be forged out of the struggle of social forces including workers lumpenproletarians women and indigenous peoples In the midst of the contemporary spatial crisis this study of Ireland is a form of mapping creating an atlas by which we might plot our past and present and orient ourselves to the future Australian Literary
