thoughtful assessment of its current turning point The China Factor in America's Foreign Relations Richard H. Solomon, Rand Corporation, 1981 With the perspective of a decade of efforts to normalize U S PRC relations it seems fair to conclude that the changes in world politics initiated by President Nixon's historic trip to Peking in 1972 were as much in people's minds as they were in actual alterations in global political economic and military forces While normalization removed the burdens for China and the U S of two decades of confrontation it has not produced an intimate new alignment of resources and efforts or a restructuring of American priorities in Asia Yet U S PRC normalization initiated processes of change that if they endure for several decades can contribute significantly to the modernization of China and to the building of a new coalition of powers supportive of the basic goals of American foreign policy In retrospect we can clearly see that the normalization process begun in 1971 eliminated the negative costs to U S defenses and foreign relations of two decades of political and military hostility with China Normalization facilitated our disengagement from Vietnam The positive benefits of normalization will only be realized as the U S PRC relationship develops in the years ahead Yet the China factor for all its promise will be only one element in America's foreign relations Chinese Disaffection Toward the Manchu Dynasty as a Factor in the Taiping Rebellion Harry Glenn Dildine, 1912 Vital Factors in China's Problems Teng Hwee Lee, Denghui Li, 1928 The China Factor Shantanu Roy-Chaudhury, 2022-04-27 India's relations with China are at a crossroads Apart from examining the complex and dynamic bilateral relations it is equally important to highlight the nuances of China's engagement with the countries in India's neighbourhood and understand the strategic implications that arise for New Delhi Shantanu Roy Chaudhury's The China Factor explores Beijing's political economic and defence relations with Sri Lanka Maldives Bangladesh and Myanmar and weighs the dividends of the bilateral relationships to better comprehend the geopolitical subtleties in the region How China's engagement in the region is also linked to Chinese President Xi Jinping's wider ambitions of national rejuvenation is also illuminated upon The book subsequently draws out the implications for India illuminates New Delhi's engagement with its neighbours and suggests policy recommendations for a way forward Drawing from diverse sources including government documents and literature from India China and the countries being studied along with interviews with serving and former officials The China Factor offers a detailed investigation into China's engagement with India's neighbourhood which necessitates a deeper understanding as New Delhi manoeuvres the tectonic shifts in its external environment Shantanu Roy Chaudhury is a Research Associate at the Centre for Air Power Studies in New Delhi an autonomous defence and security think tank affiliated with the Indian Air Force His work has been published in India and abroad He has an M Phil from the University of Oxford St Antony's College where he focused on the International Relations of South Asia and a Bachelor's degree in History from Hindu College University of Delhi Shantanu has lived in Mexico Australia the United Kingdom and India Apart from English and Hindi he speaks Spanish and a little Mandarin Isolation and Contact as Factors in the Cultural Evolution of China, Korea, and Japan Prior to 1842 Chiang Liu, 1923
