Chicago Houses:

Chicago Homes Carla Bruni, 2025-10-07 A comprehensive first of its kind book about Chicago's residential architecture and the stories that shaped it This is an entertaining and precisely illustrated story of Chicago homes from the city's earliest days through the postwar era revealing everything about what makes a home a Chicago home A city famous for its architecture and for arguing with New Yorkers about who built it first and best now has a definitive guide to the unique housing types and styles that have inspired so much devotion This book is for curious Chicagoans and visitors alike anyone who's ever wondered how to spot a Foursquare or where to find Italianate homes from before the Great Chicago Fire Why are Chicago's lots so narrow How many Chicagoans built homes from a kit What exactly is a greystone The authors combine their decades of experience in historic preservation and illustration to create an evergreen resource that Chicagoans and visitors will turn to for answers to these and other questions about the city's neighborhoods and the homes its citizens live in visit and admire

Modern in the Middle Susan Benjamin, Michelangelo Sabatino, 2020-09-01 The first survey of the classic twentieth century houses that defined American Midwestern modernism Famed as the birthplace of that icon of twentieth century architecture the skyscraper Chicago also cultivated a more humble but no less consequential form of modernism the private residence Modern in the Middle Chicago Houses 1929-75 explores the substantial yet overlooked role that Chicago and its suburbs played in the development of the modern single family house in the twentieth century In a city often associated with the outsize reputations of Frank Lloyd Wright and Ludwig Mies van der Rohe the examples discussed in this generously illustrated book expand and enrich the story of the region's built environment Authors Susan Benjamin and Michelangelo Sabatino survey dozens of influential houses by architects whose contributions are ripe for reappraisal such as Paul Schweikher Harry Weese Keck Keck and William Pereira From the bold early example of the Battledeck House by Henry Dubin 1930 to John Vinci and Lawrence Kenny's gem the Freeark House 1975 the generation spanning residences discussed here reveal how these architects contended with climate and natural setting while negotiating the dominant influences of Wright and Mies They also reveal how residential clients typically middle class professionals progressive in their thinking helped to trailblaze modern architecture in America Though reflecting different approaches to site space structure and materials the examples in Modern in the Middle reveal an abundance of astonishing houses that have never been collected into one study until now

Old Chicago Houses John Drury, 1941 A collection of articles that originally appeared in the Chicago Daily News from March 1939 through February 1941 presenting a blend of historical biographical architectural and social facts for each entry

Purging the Poorest Lawrence J. Vale, 2013-04-15 The building and management of public housing is often seen as a signal failure of American public policy but this is a vastly oversimplified view In Purging the Poorest Lawrence J Vale offers a new narrative of the seventy five year struggle to house the deserving poor In the 1930s two iconic American cities Atlanta and Chicago demolished their slums and established some of this country's first public housing

Six decades later these same cities also led the way in clearing public housing itself Vale's groundbreaking history of these twice cleared communities provides unprecedented detail about the development decline and redevelopment of two of America's most famous housing projects Chicago's Cabrini Green and Atlanta's Techwood Clark Howell Homes Vale offers the novel concept of design politics to show how issues of architecture and urbanism are intimately bound up in thinking about policy Drawing from extensive archival research and in depth interviews Vale recalibrates the larger cultural role of public housing revalues the contributions of public housing residents and reconsiders the role of design and designers

Housing Betterment ,1912 Greater New York ,1915 Study and Investigation of Housing United States. Congress. Joint Committee on Housing, 1948 The Poorhouse Devereux Bowly, Jr., 2012-07-05 Chicago seems an ideal environment for public housing because of the city's relatively young age among major cities and well deserved reputation for technology innovation and architecture Yet The Poorhouse Subsidized Housing in Chicago shows that the city's experience on the whole has been a negative one raising serious questions about the nature of subsidized housing and whether we should have it and if so in what form Bowly a native of the city provides a detailed examination of subsidized housing in the nation's third largest city Now in its second edition The Poorhouse looks at the history of public housing and subsidized housing in Chicago from 1895 to the present day Five new chapters that cover the decline and federal takeover of the Chicago Housing Authority and its more recent transformation which involved the demolition of the CHA family high rise buildings and in some cases their replacement with low rise mixed income housing on the same sites Fifty new photos supplement this edition Certificate of Excellence from the Illinois State Historical Society 2013 House & Garden ,1913
