Truth from the Earth Art Shotwell,2015-11-03 Written in semi autobiographical style the book intertwines personal testimony scripture and the nature of God The author shows how seemingly trivial or isolated events combine with sad or challenging circumstances over a period of years or even decades to work together for good according to Romans 8 28 These same events may be key factors necessary for us to experience in order to fulfill the plans and purposes God has for nations or individuals as described in Jeremiah 29 11 The book addresses issues which are either unclear or unmentioned in the Bible These include the fate of infants or small children who die before having faith or being baptized what happens to friends relatives or others we love who may have gone through life without knowing Christ as their personal savior and entire populations who have never heard of Christ over many centuries The book identifies the unpardonable sin in a manner that removes all doubts and questions The book also confronts serious misinterpretation of scripture in what the author calls Gods Greatest Truth or Satans Greatest Deception Finally the author compares the Commentary on Habakkukuncovered in the Dead Sea Scrollsto events in modern history showing that this prophecy of things which were destined for the last generation have been fulfilled Additionally he describes in detail another archeological discovery yet to be revealed which can be verified scientifically and will be incontrovertible proof to Jews and gentiles alike that God is real and Jesus is Lord and Savior Jewish Mad Men Kerri P. Steinberg,2015-02-16 It is easy to dismiss advertising as simply the background chatter of modern life often annoying sometimes hilarious and ultimately meaningless But Kerri P Steinberg argues that a careful study of the history of advertising can reveal a wealth of insight into a culture In Jewish Mad Men Steinberg looks specifically at how advertising helped shape the evolution of American Jewish life and culture over the past one hundred years Drawing on case studies of famous advertising campaigns from Levy s Rye Bread You don t have to be Jewish to love Levy s to Hebrew National hot dogs We answer to a higher authority Steinberg examines advertisements from the late nineteenth century in New York the center of advertising in the United States to trace changes in Jewish life there and across the entire country She looks at ads aimed at the immigrant population at suburbanites in midcentury and at hipster and post denominational Jews today In addition to discussing campaigns for everything from Manischewitz wine to matzoh Jewish Mad Men also portrays the legendary Jewish figures in advertising like Albert Lasker and Bill Bernbach and lesser known Mad Men like Joseph Jacobs whose pioneering agency created the brilliantly successful Maxwell House Coffee Haggadah Throughout Steinberg uses the lens of advertising to illuminate the Jewish trajectory from outsider to insider and the related arc of immigration acculturation upward mobility and suburbanization Anchored in the illustrations photographs jingles and taglines of advertising Jewish Mad Men features a dozen color advertisements and many black and white images Lively and insightful this book offers a unique look at both advertising and Jewish life in the United States
