assessment methodologies young age incarceration childbirth and intimate partner violence This book offers three unique contributions to existing literature on mothering in child protection First it creates space for mothers involved in child protection to have their voices heard Second it acknowledges the centrality of mothers subjective experience in keeping children safe Finally it challenges dominant often dehumanizing narratives of mothers involved in child protection through providing a more nuanced understanding of their lives Ultimately this anthology calls for a fundamental rethinking of how mothers involved in child protection proceedings are conceptualized in child protection research policy and practice It is recommended that mothers voices must be central to humanely reforming child protection systems
