Childhood Education:

Childhood Education ,1925 Early Childhood Education Barry Persky, Leonard H. Golubchick, 1991 Early childhood education and child care are now widely perceived to be among the central social needs of the nation Used by more than 100 universities and colleges the new second edition of this anthology is a collection of over 70 articles which together provide a comprehensive overview of the early childhood situation from a historical theoretical and practical perspective These articles enable the reader to understand human development in young children identify their intellectual strengths and weaknesses and develop the most effective teaching techniques Also included is a review of events and conditions resulting in current educational practices Classroom theory and techniques are examined not only within the U S but also run the gamut from the Israeli kibbutz program to current teaching practices in the Soviet Union and China Contents National and Historical Perspectives Philosophical and Theoretical Issues Critical Issues Exceptional Children Curri Early Childhood Education Moncrieff Cochran, Rebecca S. New, 2007-01-30 Early childhood education has reached a level of unprecedented national and international focus Parents policy makers and politicians have opinions as well as new questions about what how when and where young children should learn Teachers and program administrators now find curriculum discussions linked to dramatic new understandings about children s early learning and brain development Early childhood education is also a major topic of concern internationally as social policy analysts point to its role in a nation s future economic outlook As a groundbreaking contribution to its field this four volume handbook discusses key historical and contemporary issues research theoretical perspectives national policies and practices Early Childhood Education Programs in Illinois Schools Louis Ferratier, 1985 Assessing and Evaluating Early Childhood Education Systems Susanne Garvis, Heidi Harju-Luukkainen, Jonna Kangas, 2022-07-04 This book provides global perspectives on assessment and evaluation practices with young children in contemporary times within early childhood education systems It critiques and evaluates current evaluation and assessment goals and tools in early childhood settings The book also compares the different approaches to educational evaluations from different countries in early childhood education and care It provides insights into different approaches techniques as well as perspectives of micro and macro levels of analysis This book aims to create an international understanding about the thematic conceptions of assessment for early childhood education and care Handbook of Psychology, Educational Psychology William M. Reynolds, Gloria J. Miller, 2003-06-02 Includes established theories and cutting edge developments Presents the work of an international group of experts Presents the nature origin implications an future course of major unresolved issues in the area Bernard Spodek, Early Childhood Education Scholar, Researcher, and Teacher Olivia N. Saracho, 2013-03-20 This book highlights Spodek s six decades of significant contributions to early childhood education It provides an in depth look at his work integrating theory research and practice offering valuable insights for students and professionals in early childhood education Starting Strong V Transitions from

Early Childhood Education and Care to Primary Education OECD,2017-06-21 The transition from early childhood education to primary school is a big step for all children and a step which more and more children are having to take Quality transitions Should be well prepared and child centred managed by trained staff collaborating with one another and guided by

Defending Childhood Beverly Falk,2015-04-17 These pages make clear that the way to foster effective teaching is not with curriculum mandates and pacing guides but with professional learning opportunities that prepare expert educators to take advantage of and create teachable moments From the Foreword by Linda Darling Hammond Stanford University This book brings together a group of extraordinary educators and scholars who offer important insights about what we can do to defend childhood from societal challenges The authors explain new findings from neuroscience and psychology as well as emerging knowledge about the impact on child development of cultural and linguistic diversity poverty families and communities and the media Each chapter presents experiences and suggestions from the perspectives of different disciplines about what can be done to ensure that all children gain access to the supports they need for optimal physical social intellectual and emotional development Defending Childhood features New knowledge about how children learn from the neurobiological behavioral and social sciences Effective teaching strategies that support learning and provide for the needs of the whole child Examination of a broad range of issues that affect childhood including violence media and technology saturation and a school culture of endless testing Suggestions for policies and practices for an equitable educational system Contributors include Barbara Bowman Nancy Carlsson Paige Delis Cu llar Tiziana Filippini Matia Finn Stevenson Eugene Garc a Howard Gardner Roberta Michnick Golinkoff James J Heckman Kathryn Hirsh Pasek Mara Krechevsky George Madaus Ben Mardell Sonia Nieto Valerie Polakow Aisha Ray Robert L Selman Jack P Shonkoff M D Edward Zigler Beverly Falk is professor and director of the Graduate Programs in Early Childhood Education at The School of Education The City College of New York and author of Teaching the Way Children Learn

Leadership in Early Childhood Education Joce Nuttall,Linda Henderson,Elizabeth Wood,Jenny Martin,2024-06-12 The book presents a conceptual framework for understanding leadership for effective educator learning in early childhood settings The book describes how leaders can move centre practices from crisis to stabilization It argues that a core component of leaders work in early childhood settings is to construct and enact epistemological accounts of practice change The book includes case examples that bring to life the contexts early childhood services and services leaders who participated in the research The book also describes the application of cultural historical activity theory to the development of practice in early childhood education It describes how background theory literature and data can be synthesized to create new focal theory in education Readers will benefit from the theory that is presented establishing a sound basis for testing in future research in schools as well as in early childhood education Joce Nuttall and team are congratulated for their ground breaking scholarly endeavour in designing implementing validating findings and then writing a book that unambiguously connects theory policy practice in enacting leadership in early childhood settings This book is ambitious eloquent and inspirational The research was driven by a bold vision to build a new theorisation of early childhood leadership The writing style of the book makes the complex clear and easy to digest and thereby strengthening its readability and understanding The comparative lens adopted in the study underscores the neoliberal control of the working lives of early childhood leaders in both Australia and England The use of case study narratives to explain various aspects including the study design and methodology was refreshingly engaging Notes of encouragement addressed to novice researchers such as those embarking on higher degree studies also provide apt guidance about the messiness of conducting qualitative research The book is infused with lots of examples demonstrating the transformative power of learning especially when expertly scaffolded by the research team and thereby increasing practitioner agency and quality improvement across the early childhood setting If professional autonomy is the driver of reform and change then we must find ways to nurture strong educational leaders who can think outside the box Overall Nuttall and team succeed in arousing learning rich possibilities for reimagining early childhood leadership in theory and in practice and thereby making a magnificent contribution to the scholarship of educational leadership Professor Manjula Waniganayake PhD Macquarie University Sydney Australia
