Chieko's Sky:

Chieko's Sky □□□□□□□□□□, 1978 The Columbia Anthology of Modern Japanese Drama J. Thomas Rimer, Mitsuya Mori, M. Cody Poulton, 2014-04-29 This anthology is the first to survey the full range of modern Japanese drama and make available Japan's best and most representative twentieth and early twenty-first century works in one volume. Divided into six chronological sections: The Age of Taisho Drama, The Tsukiji Little Theater and Its Aftermath, Wartime and Postwar Drama, The 1960s and Underground Theater, The 1980s and Beyond, and Popular Theater, the collection opens with a comprehensive introduction to Meiji period drama and provides an informal yet complete history of twentieth-century Japanese theater for students, scholars, instructors, and dramatists. The collection features a mix of original and previously published translations of works, among them plays by such writers as Masamune Hakucho, The Couple Next Door, Enchi Fumiko, Restless Night in Late Spring, Abe Kobo, The Man Who Turned into a Stick, Morimoto Kaoru, A Woman's Life, Kara Juro, Two Women, Terayama Shuji, Poison Boy, Noda Hideki, Poems for Sale, and Mishima Yukio, The Sardine Seller's Net of Love. Leading translators include Donald Keene, J. Thomas Rimer, Mitsuyra Mori, M. Cody Poulton, John Gillespie, Mari Boyd, and Brian Powell. Each section features an introduction to the developments and character of the period, notes on the plays, productions, and photographs of their stage performances. The volume complements any course on modern Japanese literature and any study of modern drama in China, Korea, or other Asian or contemporary Western nations. Translanguaging in Translation Eriko Sato, 2022-03-28 This book brings applied linguistics and translation studies together through an analysis of literary texts in Chinese, Hindi, Japanese, and Korean and their translations. It examines the traces of translanguaging in translated texts with special focus on the strategic use of scripts, morphemes, words, names, onomatopoeias, metaphors, puns, and other contextualized linguistic elements. As a result, the author draws attention to the long-term, often invisible contributions of translanguaging performed by translators to the development of languages and society. The analysis sheds light on the problems caused by monolingualizing forces in translation teaching and communicative contexts in modern societies, as well as bringing a new dimension to the burgeoning field of translanguaging studies. Modern Girls, Shining Stars, the Skies of Tokyo Phyllis Birnbaum, 1999 These stunning biographical portraits, some adapted from essays that first appeared in the New Yorker, explore the lives of five Japanese women who did their best to stand up and cause more trouble than was considered proper in Japanese society. 5 photos Modern Japanese Poets and the Nature of Literature Makoto Ueda, 1983 A Stanford University Press classic Chieko and Other Poems of Takamura Kōtarō Kōtarō Takamura, 1980 The Chieko Poems Kōtarō Takamura, 2007 The major influence and subject of Takamura's work was Naganuma Cheiko, an early member of the feminist movement Seitōsha. They were married in 1914 and modelled their relationship on sexual equality. In 1931 Cheiko began to show signs of schizophrenia, and in 1932 she attempted suicide. She was institutionalised in 1935 and died there of tuberculosis in 1938. The poems in this volume are touching portraits of his wife and their life together from the
