Children Of Morocco:

The Children of Morocco Jules Hermes, 1995 Presents a journey to Morocco seen through the eyes of some of its children

Parental Child Abduction to Islamic Law Countries Nazia Yaqub, 2022-10-20 As the world becomes smaller family law is becoming truly global giving rise to more and more questions for private international law This book looks at the sensitive and complex question of child abduction with a unique child rights perspective Taking Islamic law as its case study it delves into child abduction in key jurisdictions from Iran to Saudi Arabia and Libya to Pakistan Rigorous doctrinal analysis is enhanced by empirical insights namely interviews with abductees parents and professionals It is an excellent guide to a complicated field

The Most Beautiful Among the Children of Men Helen Ram, 1884 Orphans of Islam Jamila Bargach, 2002-02-26 Orphans of Islam portrays the abject lives and excluded body of abandoned and bastard children in contemporary Morocco while critiquing the concept and practice of adoption which too often is considered a panacea Through a close and historically grounded reading of legal social and cultural mechanisms of one predominantly Islamic country Jamila Bargach shows how the surplus bastard body is created by mainstream society Written in part from the perspectives of the children and single mothers intermittently from the view of adopting families and employing bastardy as a haunting and empowering motif with a potentially subversive edge this ethnography is composed as an intricate open ended and arabesque like evocation of Moroccan society and its state institutions It equally challenges received sociological and anthropological tropes and understandings of the Arab world

State party reporting and the realisation of children's rights in Africa Remember Miamingi, 2020-01-01 About the publication Human rights norms will largely remain hollow if they are not translated into the lived realities of people on the ground Given the diversity and complexities of human rights norms the arrays of institutions mechanisms and resource required to give full effect to these norms implementation of human rights norms is a continuous and progressive undertaking Progress to be meaningful should have milestones and mechanisms for tracking it The reporting mechanisms are human rights monitoring and evaluation plans and systems to track progressive implementation This book provides an assessment of the reporting mechanisms of child rights treaty bodies It highlights what is working or not working and why making recommendations for further improvement of the reporting mechanism to better work for children in Africa The findings and recommendations in the book are based on a study commissioned by the Centre for Human Rights to assess the effects of reporting to United Nations and African Union child rights treaty bodies on the enjoyment of rights protection and welfare of children in Africa It covers 17 African countries and provides a historical snapshot of the situation as at the end of 2017
