The Doverfields' Diamonds Lawrence L. Lynch, 1906 From Washington to Moscow Louis Sell, 2016-08-04 When the United States and the Soviet Union signed the first Strategic Arms Limitation Talks accords in 1972 it was generally seen as the point at which the USSR achieved parity with the United States Less than twenty years later the Soviet Union had collapsed confounding experts who never expected it to happen during their lifetimes In From Washington to Moscow veteran US Foreign Service officer Louis Sell traces the history of US Soviet relations between 1972 and 1991 and explains why the Cold War came to an abrupt end Drawing heavily on archival sources and memoirs many in Russian as well as his own experiences Sell vividly describes events from the perspectives of American and Soviet participants He attributes the USSR's fall not to one specific cause but to a combination of the Soviet system's inherent weaknesses mistakes by Mikhail Gorbachev and challenges by Ronald Reagan and other US leaders He shows how the USSR's rapid and humiliating collapse and the inability of the West and Russia to find a way to cooperate respectfully and collegially helped set the foundation for Vladimir Putin's rise

Crime and Punishment in Soviet Officialdom William A. Clark, 1993 An analysis of political corruption and attempts to battle it in the Soviet elite without the usual baggage of moral indignation and finger pointing Examines how corruption fit into the structure of the bureaucracy and the society attitudes toward it data on its prevalence the politics and methods of combating it and the future of reform in the successor states Paper edition unseen 16 50 Annotation copyright by Book News Inc Portland OR

The Tcheka Georgii Konstantinovich Popov, 1926 The Familiarity of Strangers Francesca Trivellato, 2009-06-30 Taking a new approach to the study of cross cultural trade this book blends archival research with historical narrative and economic analysis to understand how the Sephardic Jews of Livorno Tuscany traded in regions near and far in the seventeenth and eighteenth centuries Francesca Trivellato tests assumptions about ethnic and religious trading diasporas and networks of exchange and trust Her extensive research in international archives including a vast cache of merchants letters written between 1704 and 1746 reveals a more nuanced view of the business relations between Jews and non Jews across the Mediterranean Atlantic Europe and the Indian Ocean than ever before The book argues that cross cultural trade was predicated on and generated familiarity among strangers but could coexist easily with religious prejudice It analyzes instances in which business cooperation among coreligionists and between strangers relied on language customary norms and social networks more than the progressive rise of state and legal institutions

The five hundred millions of the begum. The tribulations of a Chinaman in China. The giant raft: Eight hundred leagues on the Amazon Jules Verne, 1911 Spoiled Distinctions Hannah Freed-Thall, 2015-09-01 Spoiled Distinctions investigates crises of evaluation in twentieth century France Taking Marcel Proust as its central figure the book theorizes the disorienting force of everyday aesthetic experience In a series of surprising readings Hannah Freed Thall frees Proust from his reputation as the most refined of high modernists The author of In Search of Lost Time appears here as a journalist and newspaper enthusiast a literary ventriloquist and connoisseur of popular scandals and a writer attentive to the unsophisticated phenomenology of the here and now The final chapters of the book consider the legacy of Proust s experiments with inestimable worth Authors Francis Ponge Nathalie Sarraute and Yasmina Reza also explore the underside of cultural distinction With Proust they elaborate modernist variations on the beautiful and sublime from nuance to the whatever and from the awkward to the sickly sweet Spoiled Distinctions thus revitalizes the critical discourse on aesthetics Mapping the intersection of phenomenology aesthetic theory and the sociology of culture the book reveals how enchanting the ordinary can be The five hundred millions of the begum. The tribulations of a Chinaman in Jules Verne,1911
