Distant Homeland Kay Stephens, Julia Franklin, 2009-07 After being attacked by a Messerschmitt while flying a Spitfire from the factory to the airfield Sally Downing is saved by Vaclav a British based Czech pilot They become close and when they are separated after the war Vaclav plans to steal a plane and be reunited with Sally Bound by Distance Pasquale Verdicchio, 1997 Bound by Distance takes its place among a growing body of scholarship the goal of which is to challenge the kind of thinking that reproduces the West as a stable and homogenous political and discursive entity The Italian nation with its peculiar process of formation the continuous tensions between its own northern and southern regions and its history of emigration provides an important case for complicating and reassessing concepts of national racial economic and cultural dominance The author analyzes the interactive space of the history of Italian state formation Italian subaltern literature Italian emigrant writing and the current situation of North African and Asian immigrants to Italy in order to contest the feigned homogeneity of the Italian nation and to complicate and reassess concepts of national racial economic and cultural dominance Toward a Philosophy of the Act M. M. Bakhtin, 2010-02-22 Rescued in 1972 from a storeroom in which rats and seeping water had severely damaged the fifty year old manuscript this text is the earliest major work 1919 1921 of the great Russian philosopher M M Bakhtin Toward a Philosophy of the Act contains the first occurrences of themes that occupied Bakhtin throughout his long career The topics of authoring responsibility self and other the moral significance of outsideness participatory thinking the implications for the individual subject of having no alibi in existence the difference between the world as experienced in actions and the world as represented in discourse all are broached here in the heat of discovery This is the heart of the heart of Bakhtin the center of the dialogue between being and language the world and mind the given and the created that forms the core of Bakhtin s distinctive dialogism A special feature of this work is Bakhtin s struggle with the philosophy of Immanuel Kant Put very simply this text is an attempt to go beyond Kant s formulation of the ethical imperative mci will be important for scholars across the humanities as they grapple with the increasingly vexed relationship between aesthetics and ethics Historical Archaeology of the Irish Diaspora Stephen A. Brighton, 2009 Between 1845 and 1852 a watershed event in Ireland s history the Great Hunger forced more than one million starved and dispossessed people most of them poor tenant farmers to leave their native country for the shores of the United States Further weakened by the arduous voyage across the Atlantic Ocean many sought refuge in the harbor cities in which they landed Not surprisingly Irish immigrants counted as one quarter of New York City s population during the 1850s In Historical Archaeology of the Irish Diaspora Stephen A Brighton places Irish and Irish American material culture within a broad historical context including the waves of immigration that preceded the Famine and the development of the Irish American communities that followed it He meticulously details the archaeological research connected with excavations at two pre Famine sites in County Roscommon Ireland and with several immigrant tenements located in the Five Points Manhattan and the Dublin section of nearby Paterson New Jersey Using this transnational approach to link artifacts and ceramics found in rural Ireland with those discovered in sites in the urban northeastern United States Brighton also employs contemporary diaspora studies to illustrate how various factions sustained a distinct homeland connection even as the Irish were first alienated from and then gradually incorporated into American society With more than forty million Americans claiming Irish ancestry fully understanding Ireland s traumatic history and its impact on the growth of the United States remains a vital task for researchers on both sides of the Atlantic Brighton s study of lived experience follows a fascinating historical path that will aid scholars in a variety of disciplines

Media and Communication in the Chinese Diaspora Wanning Sun, John Sinclair, 2015-09-16 The rise of China has brought about a dramatic increase in the rate of migration from mainland China At the same time the Chinese government has embarked on a full scale push for the internationalisation of Chinese media and culture Media and communication have therefore become crucial factors in shaping the increasingly fraught politics of transnational Chinese communities This book explores the changing nature of these communities and reveals their dynamic and complex relationship to the media in a range of countries worldwide Overall the book highlights a number of ways in which China s going global policy interacts with other factors in significantly reshaping the content and contours of the diasporic Chinese media landscape In doing so this book constitutes a major rethinking of Chinese transnationalism in the twenty first century

Distant Homeland Kay Stephens, 2004 Sally Downing contributes to the war effort by flying Spitfires from the factory to the airfields When she is attacked by a Messerschmitt she is mortified at the idea of losing the plane as much as she is terrified of losing her life but at the last minute an RAF Hurricane swoops from the clouds to rescue her

The club is led by Henry Winter, a brilliant and charismatic young man. Henry is obsessed with Greek mythology and philosophy, and he quickly draws Richard into his world. The other members of the Classics Club are equally as fascinating. Bunny Corcoran is a wealthy and spoiled young man who is always looking for a good time. Charles Tavis is a quiet and reserved young man who is deeply in love with Henry. Camilla Macaulay is a beautiful and intelligent young woman who is drawn to the power and danger of the Classics Club. The students are all deeply in love with Morrow, and they are willing to do anything to please him. Morrow is a complex and mysterious figure, and he seems to be manipulating the students for his own purposes. As the students become more involved with Morrow, they begin to commit increasingly dangerous acts. The Secret History is an exceptional and gripping novel that will keep you wondering until the very end. The novel is a warning tale about the dangers of obsession and the power of evil.
