Diverse Druids:

Diverse Druids Robert Baird,2003-10-01 History is a web of journalistic intrigue written to benefit those who have been in charge They won the wars they generated through their NEEDS and usurped the knowledge of sincere adepts like Jesus and Buddha There is no real new insight in this perspective but in this book you will start the process of seeing for yourself just how incredible the gamesmanship or forgery has been Lactantius was the tutor for the house of Constantine who edited the Bible and designed much of what Christianity has become This ancient sage was an early promoter of the Flat Earth and he noted there will always be those who will lie and forge for religion It is my hope that you can assist the enlightenment that must occur once you see some of the forensic and archaeological information now available Perhaps more importantly I hope you will find roots to all religion which must develop tolerance and ecumenicism if we are to endure as a species on this planet hurtling ever faster through the unlimited creative and awesome universe we are blessed with Some academics decry the Post Modern era where the knowledge is available for all to make their own judgment about I have no definite opinion about most things and I hope we all can strive to find the answers together I look forward to seeing these academics tear apart what I have done as I present information hidden or not employed in any other book I await the inevitable outcry but I am sure there are reasons why the great sage Lao Tzu went to see the Ancient Masters of the Tarim Basin where the Red Heads developed most of the technology and other social systems that we are now finding spread around the world My speculations that seek to integrate various facts of sciences are not the final answer and I look forward to the reader assisting me in helping bring the Brotherhood back to the forefront of life on Earth American Druidry Kimberly Kirner,2023-12-14 Approaching Druidry as an emerging religious movement that offers an alternative to the mainstream materialist consumerist culture of the United States Kimberly Kirner analyses her own life as a Druid through the lens of her profession as a cultural anthropologist Interweaving lively stories of her life as a Druid with accessible analytical essays drawing from an unusual array of literature from the anthropology of religion the anthropology of consciousness organizational anthropology cognitive anthropology and ethnoecology she leads the reader into an experiential and conceptual understanding of Druidry as a way of life and as a contemporary Western new religious movement that challenges Christo centric definitions of religion Reflecting on three domains of the Druidic life the author describes the Druidic worldview place time and the body community relational spirituality and vocation ethics and action These descriptions are punctuated with reflective essays that question the boundaries and nature of religion as it is generally understood in the Western world by examining how Druidry might be understood using concepts more appropriate to Druids conceptualizations of themselves Druids Anne Ross,1999 Examination of origins and role of Druids predominantly seen through Celtic eyes Shamans/Neo-Shamans Robert J.
