Divided Borders:

Divided Borders Juan Flores, 1992-01-01 Divided Borders: Essays on Puerto Rican Identity is a collection of essays on history, literature, and culture by the celebrated commentator on Puerto Rican and Caribbean culture in the United States, Juan Flores. He is the recipient of the prestigious Casa de las Américas award for his monograph on Puerto Rican identity. Included are Puerto Rican Literature in the United States, Stages and Perspectives: The Insular Vision, Pedreira and the Puerto Rican Misere, National Culture and Migration, Perspectives of the Puerto Rican Working Class, Living Borders, Buscando America, Languages of Latino Self-Formation, and many others. Divided Borders, Puerto Rican Cultural Identity and the Work of Luis Rafael Sánchez John Perivolaris, 2000. This book undertakes the most comprehensive and theoretically rigorous examination to date of Luis Rafael Sánchez's work in the context of cultural politics in Puerto Rico and of the international and regional dimensions of Sánchez's work in relation to Latinxs, the Bible, and Migration. Efraín Agosto, Jacqueline M. Hidalgo, 2018-10-27. This book examines the conjunction between migration and biblical texts with a focus on Latinx histories and experiences. Essays reflect upon Latinxs, the Bible, and migration in different ways: some consider how the Bible is used in the midst of or in response to Latinx experiences and histories of migration; some use Latinx histories and experiences of migration to examine Biblical texts in both the First and Second Testaments; some consider the Bible as a phenomenological set of texts that respond to and/or compel migration. Cultural, literary, and postcolonial theories inform the analysis, as does the exploration of how migrant groups themselves scripturalize their biblical and cultural texts.

China's borderland economy has grown significantly recently, thanks largely to a favorable institutional environment created by national strategies such as the development of the western part of China, revitalization of old industrial bases in the northeast, and the anti-poverty campaign. This work draws on theories of international economics and spatial economics to study the regional economic integration of China's border areas, with the aim of shedding light on how to improve policies and practices. It discusses topics such as the transformation of border trade, industrial upgrading, and urbanization in borderlands, especially in the context of cross-border economic integration Furthermore the book also explores ways in which changes in the border might contribute to the formation of peripheral economic growth centers and related environmental institutional and policy issues It will interest scholars of Asian economic trends and the rise of China particularly in Southeast Asia
