

DRAGON RIDERS

The first year is when some of us lose our lives. The second is when the rest of us lose to humanity. —Dragon Riders

Everyone expected Violet to die during her first year at Dragon War College. Violet's already wondering if that's true. Thinking wasn't the best idea. It just meant to avoid the worst. Instead, the unexpected and the worst.

Now the real training begins. Violet's already wondering if she'll get through and maintain that it's grueling and unbearably brutal, or even that it's designed to stretch the riders' capacity to pain beyond endurance. It's the new vice commandant, who's made a personal decision to teach Violet exactly how powerless she is—until she betrays the man she loves.

Although Violet's body might be weaker and smaller than everyone else's, she still has her wit—and a will of iron. And leadership is forgetting the most important lesson Dragon has taught her: Dragon riders make their own rules.

But a determination to survive won't be enough this year.

Because Violet knows the real secret hidden for centuries at Dragon War College—and nothing, not even dragon fire, may be enough to save them in the end.
