Diving Into Fire Poems:

Diving Into Fire Robert Currie, 1977-01-01 The Royal Shakspeare; the poet's works in chronological order from the text of professor Delius, with 'The Two noble kinsmen' and 'Edward iii', and an intr. by F.J. Furnivall, with illustrations. 3 vols. [publ. in 52 pt.]. William Shakespeare, 1896 The Golden Treasury of the Best Songs and Lyrical Poems in the English Language Francis Turner Palgrave, 1914 Running in Darkness Robert Currie, 2007

A subtly powerful collection of poetry which celebrates the shape and details of a full life from youth through middle age to old age and begins to face the prospect of its loss With the sure hand of a veteran poet Robert Currie has created a book of commemoration of reading into the permanent record his life its events and the beloved people in it parents partners and children writers teachers and students And the people who have begun to leave it His sweep is all encompassing from his own imagined conception to vicariously through his parents demise his own imagined end The poems are full of fondness humour and no little irony as he looks back at his younger self and the sometimes but not always painful loss of innocence The final section deals with the loss of his parents and the illnesses and untimely death of friends This life so full of emotion and event is drawing near its close Technique is not the subject here is not the point It stands quietly in service of the story being told Each poem is a small step through this life but they keep coming they pick up speed and you suddenly realize they are walking on your heart And after the bursts of laughter bursts of tears bursts of love and bursts of years Robert Currie delivers us a warning with his own startled realization It goes so fast

A Warm Fire Paul Jason Bartholomew, 2012-09

According to poet Paul Jason Bartholomew a poet is a conductor who arouses and awakens the dormant inner sanctum of self awareness In his poetry collection A Warm Fire Poems of Faith Family and Friends to Warm the Heart he uses passion and pathos as powerful motivating instruments in conducting a personal symphony to which we alone can harmonize From picking berries and apples to tapping sap for maple syrup pouring wax for fragrant candles and from warm fires on snowy nights to sledding and autumn walks the subjects of his poetry evoke a warm and happy life Grab a mug of steaming coffee and come absorb the crackle and aroma of a cozy fire in the old stone fireplace as you dive into this new poetry collection A Warm Fire Curved and crooked is this leaf strewn path originally made by a cow and her calf still overlaced with leafy arms like most local lanes to local farms The road is special to my wife and me treelined sentinels for my family Tread through mud snow autumn leaves alone we built a place at its end called Home from The Lane

Davis, 1899 Outward Ed Pavlic, 2021-06-01 The first scholarly study of Adrienne Rich s full career examines the poet through her developing approach to the transformative potential of relationships Adrienne Rich is best known as a feminist poet and activist This iconic status owes especially to her work during the 1970s while the distinctive political and social visions she achieved during the second half of her career remain inadequately understood In Outward poet scholar and novelist Ed Pavli considers Rich s entire oeuvre to argue that her most profound contribution in poems is her emphasis on not only what goes on within us but also what goes on between us Guided by this insight Pavli shows how Rich s most radical work depicts our lives from the public to the intimate in shared space rather than in owned privacy Informed by Pavli s friendship and correspondence with Rich Outward explores how her poems position visionary possibilities to contend with cruelty and violence in our world Employing an innovative framework Pavli examines five kinds of solitude reflected in Rich s poems relational solitude social solitude fugitive solitude dissident solitude and radical solitude He traces the importance of relationships to her early writing before turning to Rich s explicitly antiracist and anticapitalist work in the 1980s which culminates with her most extensive sequence An Atlas of the Difficult World Pavli concludes by examining the poet s twenty first century work and its depiction of relationships that defy historical divisions based on region race class gender and sexuality A deftly written engagement in which one poet works within the poems of another Outward reveals the development of a major feminist thinker in successive phases as Rich furthers her intimate and erotic social and political reach Pavli illuminates Rich s belief that social divisions and the power of capital
