Dew On The Thorn:

Dew on the Thorn Jovita González Mireles, 1997-01-01 Dew on the Thorn seeks to recreate the life of Texas Mexicans as Anglo culture was gradually encroaching upon them Gonzalez provides us with a richly detailed portrait of South Texas focusing on the cultural traditions of Texas Mexicans at a time when the divisions of class and race were pressing on the established way of life Dew on the Thorn Marywood College, 1940 Dew on the Thorn ... Marywood College, 1940

Native Speakers María Eugenia Cotera, 2008-12-01 In the early twentieth century three women of color helped shape a new world of ethnographic discovery Ella Cara Deloria a Sioux woman from South Dakota Zora Neale Hurston an African American woman from Florida and Jovita González a Mexican American woman from the Texas borderlands achieved renown in the fields of folklore studies anthropology and ethno linguistics during the 1920s and 1930s While all three collaborated with leading male intellectuals in these disciplines to produce innovative ethnographic accounts of their own communities they also turned away from ethnographic meaning making at key points in their careers and explored the realm of storytelling through vivid mixed genre novels centred on the lives of women In this book Cotera offers an intellectual history situated in the borderlands between conventional accounts of anthropology women s history and African American Mexican American and Native American intellectual genealogies At its core is also a meditation on what it means to draw three women from disparate though nevertheless interconnected histories of marginalization into conversation with one another Can such a conversation reveal a shared history that has been erased due to institutional racism sexism and simple neglect Is there a mode of comparative reading that can explore their points of connection even as it remains attentive to their differences These are the questions at the core of this book which offers not only a corrective history centred on the lives of women of colour intellectuals but also a methodology for comparative analysis shaped by their visions of the world

Gender and Place in Chicana/o Literature Melina V. Vizcaíno-Alemán, 2017-09-07 This book is a study of gender and place in twentieth century Chicana o literature and culture covering the early period of regional writing to contemporary art Remapping Chicana o literary and cultural history from the critical regional perspective of the Mexican American Southwest it uncovers the aesthetics of Chicana o critical regionalism in the writings of Cleofas Jaramillo Fray Angélico Chávez Elena Zamora O Shea and Jovita González In addition to bringing renewed attention to contemporary writers like Richard Rodríguez and introducing the work of Chicana artist Carlota de Espinoza the study also revisits the more recognized work of Américo Paredes Mario Suárez Mary Helen Ponce and Rodolfo Corky Gonzales to reconsider the aesthetics of gender and place in Chicana o literature and culture Spatial and Discursive Violence in the US Southwest Rosaura Sánchez, Beatrice Pita, 2021-03-01 In Spatial and Discursive Violence in the US Southwest Rosaura Sánchez and Beatrice Pita examine literary representations of settler colonial land enclosure and dispossession in the history of New Mexico Texas and Oklahoma Sánchez and Pita analyze a range of Chicano a and Native American novels films short stories and other cultural artifacts from the eighteenth century to the present showing how Chicano a works often celebrate an idealized colonial Spanish past as a way to counter stereotypes of Mexican and Indigenous racial and ethnic inferiority As they demonstrate these texts often erase the participation of Spanish and Mexican settlers in the dispossession of Indigenous lands Foregrounding the relationship between literature and settler colonialism they consider how literary representations of land are manipulated and redefined in ways that point to the changing practices of dispossession In so doing Sanchez and Pita prompt critics to reconsider the role of settler colonialism in the deep history of the United States and how spatial and discursive violence are always correlated
