Distant Companions:

Distant Companions Sophie Gerry,2023     Distant Companions Karen Tranberg Hansen,2018-03-15 Distant Companions tells the fascinating story of the lives and times of domestic servants and their employers in Zambia from the beginning of white settlement during the colonial period until after independence Emphasizing the interactive nature of relationships of domination the book is useful for readers who seek to understand the dynamics of domestic service in a variety of settings In order to examine the servant employer relationship within the context of larger political and economic processes Karen Tranberg Hansen employs an unusual combination of methods including analysis of historical documents travelogues memoirs literature and life histories as well as anthropological fieldwork survey research and participant observation     Beobachtungen der Kaiserlichen Universitäts-Sernwarte Dorpat Tartu Astronoomia Observatoorium,1924

Home economics Sacha Hepburn,2022-08-16 Domestic service has long been one of the largest forms of urban employment across southern Africa Home economics provides the first comprehensive history of this essential sector in the decades following independence and the end of apartheid Focusing on Lusaka and drawing wider comparisons the book traces how Black workers and employers adapted existing models of domestic service as part of broader responses to changing gendered employment patterns economic decline and endemic poverty It reveals how kin based domestic service gradually displaced wage labour and how women and girl workers came to dominate kin based and waged domestic service with profound consequences for labour regulation and worker organising Theoretically innovative and empirically rich the book provides essential insights into debates about gender work and urban economies that are critical to understanding southern Africa s post colonial and post apartheid history This book is relevant to United Nations Sustainable Development Goal 8 Decent work and economic growth     Astronomical Register ,1882     Astronomy Henry Norris Russell,Raymond Smith Dugan,John Quincy Stewart,1927     Astronomy.
