Disturbing The War:

Report of Proceedings of the National War Labor Conference National war labor conference,1918 British Identity in World War I Mary K. Laurents,2020-12-10 This book analyzes the development of the Lost Generation narrative following the First World War The author examines narratives that illustrate the fracture of upper class identity including well known examples of the Lost Generation Robert Graves Siegfried Sassoon and Vera Brittain as well as other less typical cases George Mallory and JRR Tolkien to demonstrate the effects of the First World War on British society culture and politics Full Official History of the War with Spain ... Murat Halstead,1899 Specters of War Elisabeth Bronfen,2012-10-03 Specters of War looks at the way war has been brought to the screen in various genres and at different historical moments throughout the twentieth century and into the twenty first Elisabeth Bronfen asserts that Hollywood has emerged as a place where national narratives are created and circulated so that audiences can engage with fantasies ideologies and anxieties that take hold at a given time only to change with the political climate Such cultural reflection is particularly poignant when it deals with America s traumatic history of war The nation has no direct access to war as a horrific experience of carnage and human destruction we understand our relation to it through images and narratives that transmit and interpret it for us Bronfen does not discuss actual conflicts but the films by which we have come to know and remember them including All Quiet on the Western Front The Best Years of Our Lives Miracle at St Anna The Deer Hunter and Flags of Our Fathers Battles and campaigns the home front and women who wait narratives war correspondents and court martials are also explored as instruments of cultural memory Bronfen argues that we are haunted by past wars and by cinematic re conceptualizations of them and reveals a national iconography of redemptive violence from which we seem unable to escape
