James was unquestionably received with a certain flutter of excitement That his estates were as vast as an average English county and his ancestry among the noblest in Europe would not alone perhaps have arrested the attention of the paragraphists since acres and forefathers of foreign extraction are rightly regarded as conferring at the most a claim merely to toleration But in addition to these he possessed a charming English wife belonging to one of the most distinguished families in the peerage the Grillyers of Monkton Grillyer and had further demonstrated his judgment by purchasing the winner of the last year s Derby with a view to improving the horse flesh of his native land The Bookman ,1906
