Lilith: The Power of the Woman's Spirit in the Age of Aquarius Ed Russo,2014-08-06 Embrace the darkness for there you will find the light We all have been told in this patriarchal system that to look for salvation is to look upward and outward to a god or gods to worship We are not here to worship but to look inside ourselves and embrace who we are and grow to our full potential Inanna is the archetypical Goddess of love and war Her descent into the Underworld is a reflection of our journey of going inward to face our true nature When we fight this we then are at war with nature Lilith is Inanna s handmaiden as we ourselves can also become partners with Inanna Realizing who we are we then embrace the balance with the female archetype with the male archetype which will bring us wholeness as women become stronger and men and women come to love themselves This new perspective is what is taken place as we enter into the Age of Aquarius

Bassein,1984-03-23 Bassein examines the pervasive linkage between women s sexuality and death in Western thought and literature and concludes that there is no reasonable basis for much of it She first explores how language reveals and reinforces the bond between women and death She then discusses traditional Christianity as a vehicle for perpetuating this tie and demonstrates that negative attitudes and brutality associated with women find expression in otherwise commendable works of art The author examines nineteenth and twentieth century fiction and poetry to show the different ways writers have handled women in sexual situations Bassein concludes that tracing the origins and prevalence of the automatic association and seeking alternatives help us recognize the irrational and unconscious tendencies that are at the basis of stereotype formation and tacit acceptance of brutality
