

HOW TO MAKE AN

APPRAISAL FORM

START BY POINTING OUT WHO'S BEING APPRAISED

The first thing that you need to do in your sample form is to provide details on the individual whose performance will be assessed. Start by writing down that person's complete name.

SHARE WHO IS RESPONSIBLE FOR CONDUCTING THE APPRAISAL

When doing this, start with the individual's name. Make sure to include his/her first name, last name and middle name so that there won't be any concerns regarding identity. You may then include any other relevant information.

COME UP WITH THE CRITERIA

What these standards are will depend entirely on the qualities that are being looked for. Come up with a table where you can list down each one down and where you can rate the individual if they happen to have or are lacking in them.

TAKE NOTE OF THE STRENGTHS, WEAKNESSES & ACCOMPLISHMENTS

It's always best to start with the positives. This means that you should begin with the strengths and accomplishments. Make sure to take note of anything that the individual has accomplished.

PROVIDE THE RESULTS AND SUGGESTIONS

At the very end of the appraisal form, there has to be a section where you place the results of the evaluation and whatever suggestions or recommendations you may have.
