Parliament, 1977 A Scream Goes Through the House Arnold Weinstein, 2007-12-18 For too long we have been encouraged to see culture as an affair of intellect and reading as a solitary exercise But the truth is different literature and art are pathways of feeling and our encounter with them is social inscribing us in a larger community Through art we discover that we are not alone So writes the esteemed Brown University professor Arnold Weinstein in this brilliant radical exploration of Western literature In the tradition of Harold Bloom and Jacques Barzun Weinstein guides us through great works of art to reveal how literature constitutes nothing less than a feast for the heart Our encounter with literature and art can be a unique form of human connection an entry into the storehouse of feeling Writing about works by Sophocles Shakespeare Dickens Charlotte Brontë Munch Proust O'Neill Burroughs DeLillo Tony Kushner Toni Morrison and others Weinstein explores how writers and artists give us a vision of what human life is really all about Reading is an affair of the heart as well as of the mind deepening our sense of the fundamental forces and emotions that govern our lives including fear pain illness loss depression death and love Provocative beautifully written essential A Scream Goes Through the House traces the human cry that echoes in literature through the ages demonstrating how intense feelings are heard and shared With intellectual insight and emotional acumen Weinstein reveals how the scream that resounds through the house of literature history the body and the family shows us who we really are and joins us together in a vast and timeless community *Parliamentary Debates.
