Black Plays Three:

Winsome Pinnock Kate Dorney, 2026-01-30 Winsome Pinnock is the first book length study of one of Britain's most important playwrights and her four decade long career chronicling the lives of Black people and Black women in particular in Britain. It offers a detailed and sustained analysis of Pinnock's plays attending to their formal aesthetic and thematic qualities as well as in depth examination of the socio cultural and political contexts that informed the creation and reception of them from the Slavery Abolition Act of 1833 the targeted attacks on Black migrants in Notting Hill in the 1950s through to Black Lives Matter movement. Combining archival research and close textual analysis Dorney explores the range of Pinnock's works from little known radio plays monodramas and micro dramas through to well known plays such as Leave Taking Mules and the award winning Rockets and Blue Lights. It considers the ways in which Pinnock's work addresses issues of belonging family and resistance to exploitation and abuse and how Pinnock's craft as a playwright has developed over time and been transmitted through her long career as a teacher of creative writing. Part of the Routledge Modern and Contemporary Dramatist series this volume provides essential insights for scholars students and practitioners interested in modern play writing race and representation and the politics of performance.
