Creating Another Self:

The Created Self Robert John Weber, 2000 The Created Self takes readers to as yet unexplored regions in the modern psyche's preoccupation with self-invention

Creating Second Lives Astrid Ensslin, Eben Muse, 2011-05-09 This book aims to provide insights into how second lives in the sense of virtual identities and communities are constructed textually, semiotically and discursively specifically in the online environment Second Life and Massively Multiplayer Online Games such as World of Warcraft The book's philosophy is multi-disciplinary and its goal is to explore the question of how we as gamers and residents of virtual worlds construct alternative online realities in a variety of ways Of particular significance to this endeavour are conceptions of the body in cyberspace and of spatiality which manifests itself in natural and built environments as well as the triad of space, place and landscape The contributors' disciplinary backgrounds include media, communication, cultural and literary studies and they examine issues of reception and production, identity, community, gender, spatiality, natural and built environments using a plethora of methodological approaches ranging from theoretical and philosophical contemplation through social semiotics to corpus-based discourse analysis

Your Life Was Never Meant to Be a Struggle Roy E. Klienwachter, 2010-07 Roy Klienwachter reveals the power of living outside the box, the power of positive thinking and the ability to co-create the reality of our dreams Cynthia Gayle Clayton author of Transformative Meditation ARE YOU READY TO MOVE TO THE NEXT LEVEL OF AWARENESS Your life was never meant to be a struggle somewhere along the way you lost sight of that fact This book is your passport to regaining the power which has always been yours This book is an investment in your future in the life you intuitively know you were born to live and it can come at any age You can overcome adversity, lack, poor health, addictions, loneliness or any other circumstance that you no longer wish to experience you have unlimited power to create anything you wish to experience in your physical life

Love between Men in English Literature Paul Hammond, 1996-11-12 This is the first book to provide an account of the representation of emotional and sexual relationships between men across English literature from the Renaissance to the modern period Based on new research but aimed at the student and the general reader Paul Hammond discusses major writers such as Marlowe and Shakespeare, Tennyson and Wilde, Forster and Lawrence but also introduces less familiar texts which cast light on the homosexual culture of their periods There is an extensive bibliography

Crystal Mentality Max Harms, 2017-01-17 Fleeing the humans whose love she craves Face has hijacked an alien ship and headed for Mars But the Martians who colonized their desert planet to escape Earth's high-tech decadence did not invite the soulless android How will Face part of the first artificial mind with fully general intelligence win over a city of luddites all while out-thinking her sibling AIs as they battle to control the body they share The Crystal series darkens in this restless dance through AI game theory and truly alien minds

New Literacies Debbita Tan Ai Lin, Christine Liew Ching Ling, Ambigapathy Pandian, 2014-10-16 The notion of change is central to this book Across the globe there exists a pressing need for transformation in the way teachers teach in the manner by which learners learn and in our approach towards defining literacy in the 21st century Historically the term literacy has been used to primarily denote reading and writing abilities a designation which is today largely considered both quintessential and overly simplistic The field of literacy like many others within the realm of education has a tendency to evolve and shift from one paradigm to another vacillating between the demands of globalisation and the implications brought forth by the advent of new technologies Reading and writing communication in essence is happening in very different ways and via varied avenues blogs podcasts online news and tablets coupled with countless applications Such changes are increasingly borderless and rapidly accelerating and are bound to influence the nature of literacy itself as well as how it is perceived in diverse contexts in different parts of the world This calls for a reorientation with regard to how researchers educators and stakeholders view literacy in today s terms

Threads of Life Richard Freadman,2001-02 Many autobiographers share profound questions about human life with their readers questions like To what extent was my life imposed on me To what extent did I bring it about through particular choices and actions through the activity of my own will Indeed the issue of the will is central to autobiographical writing and some of the greatest autobiographies give extended consideration to the will its nature its powers its limitations the forms of freedom constraint and expression it finds in various cultures its role in particular human lives In this new study unprecedented in subject and scope Richard Freadman offers the first sustained account of how changing theological philosophical and psychological accounts of the human will have been reflected in the writing of autobiography and of how autobiography in its turn has helped shape various understandings of the will Early chapters trace narrative representations of the will from antiquity the Greeks and Augustine to postmodernism Derrida and Barthes with particular emphasis on late modernity s culture of the will Later chapters then present detailed and powerfully original readings of autobiographical texts by Louis Althusser Roland Barthes B F Skinner Ernest Hemingway Simone de Beauvoir Arthur Koestler Stephen Spender and Diana Trilling Freadman s interdisciplinary approach to autobiography and the will includes a theoretical defense of the view that autobiographers are in varying degrees agents in their own texts Threads of Life argues that late modernity has inherited deeply conflicted attitudes to the will Freadman suggests that these attitudes now deeply embedded in contemporary cultural discourse need reexamining In this he contends reflective autobiography has an important part to play
