Creating Effective Learning Environments:

Creating Effective Learning Environments Karyn Wellhousen, Ingrid Crowther, 2004 Curriculum needs to be based on the strengths and needs of children This information is gathered through careful observation and documentation and is one of the cornerstones of curriculum development The purpose of this text is to take curriculum development to another level to fill the gap between theory and practice This text will help students to look at curriculum from the perspective of the child and to understand how that perspective is linked to learning and theory This book is a documentation of individuals and groups of children learning over time Each curriculum discussion starts with the real experiences that children have had From these experiences pertinent theory is woven in explained and expanded

Building Effective Learning Environments Kevin S. Krahenbuhl, 2021-04-29 Teachers are bombarded with trends and competing ideas This book provides a framework to help you find the right balance between new and old instructional practices so you can design learning environments that truly enhance learning The author shares key research based principles to engage and extend learning and he debunks common myths He then shows how to use a classical method and how to engage with new ideas and evidence to create a highly effective learning environment Each chapter offers reflection and application questions you can use independently or in book studies to get the most out of your reading Written for teachers of any grade level the book contains applications and examples across content areas so you can see how to implement the ideas in your own classroom or school
