Mentoring and Supervision in Healthcare Neil Gopee, 2011-04-30. This practical and accessible book examines the knowledge base, skills and attitudes required for mentoring in the context of healthcare. Revised and updated to take account of the latest developments in healthcare, the text explores theories and research on mentoring by analysing their strengths and weaknesses. To complement his analytical style, Neil Gopee has introduced more interactive features to emphasise the application of theories and principles to various clinical settings. He also draws on the most recent standards and competencies for mentors and supervisors and examines how they can be applied in day to day mentoring and clinical practice activities. Key features include: Comprehensive content; examines learning styles, different learning environments, evidence based care, principles of assessment, the mentor's leadership, evaluation of teaching. Practice oriented case studies offer links to real life and the chapters provide effective frameworks for mentoring in practice. Interactive activities and think points encourage the reader to explore and apply concepts to their practice and roles. Up to date, firmly based on current knowledge in the field. Mentoring and Supervision in Healthcare is a core text for mentor preparation courses in nursing, midwifery and across the healthcare sector. It supports learning and ongoing professional development for all healthcare professionals.

Ready, Set, Grow! Lynda Madaras, Linda Davick, 2009-08-18. Ready Set Grow! Young girls before the onset of puberty have a curiosity about their soon to be changing bodies that needs addressing in a simpler way than for their older sisters. In Madaras's proven, trust worthy, friendly voice and style, this entirely new book now brings them the same kind of thoughtful, down to earth information but at a reading and comprehension level that is just right for them. Responding throughout to real life questions and observations from younger girls, Madaras explores the changes that are happening or about to happen to them, including the development of breasts, body hair and body fat, the changes in their reproductive organs, both inside and out, their first period and all the complex feelings surrounding it, the unwelcome appearance of acne and new body odors and perhaps most important, how to respect and celebrate their unique bodies even when the outside world is not always so accepting.
