Between Dancing And Writing:

Between Dancing and Writing Kimerer L. LaMothe, 2004 This book provides philosophical grounds for an emerging area of scholarship the study of religion and dance In the first part LaMothe investigates why scholars in religious studies have tended to overlook dance or rhythmic bodily movement in favor of textual expressions of religious life In close readings of Descartes Kant Schleiermacher Hegel and Kierkegaard LaMothe traces this attitude to formative moments of the field in which philosophers relied upon the practice of writing to mediate between the study of religion on the one hand and theology on the other In the second part LaMothe revives the work of theologian phenomenologist and historian of religion Gerardus van der Leeuw for help in interpreting how dancing can serve as a medium of religious experience and expression In so doing LaMothe opens new perspectives on the role of bodily being in religious life and on the place of theology in the study of religion

Emerging Bodies Gabriele Klein, Sandra Noeth, 2014-04-15 The concept of worldmaking is based on the idea that the world is not given but rather produced through language actions ideas and perception This collection of essays takes a closer look at various hybrid and disparate worlds related to dance and choreography Coming from a broad range of different backgrounds and disciplines the authors inquire into the ways of producing dance worlds through artistic practice discourse and media choreographic form and dance material The essays in this volume critically reflect the predominant topos of dance as something fleeting and ephemeral an embodiment of the Other in modernity Moreover they demonstrate that there is more than just one universal world of dance but rather a multitude of interrelated dance worlds with more emerging every day
