Fifty two readings on living in intentional Christian community to spark group discussion Gold Medal Winner 2017
Illumination Book Awards Christian Living Silver Medal Winner 2017 Benjamin Franklin Award in Religion Independent Book Publishers Association Why in an age of connectivity are our lives more isolated and fragmented than ever And what can be done about it The answer lies in the hands of God s people Increasingly today s Christians want to be the church to follow Christ together in daily life From every corner of society they are daring to step away from the status quo and respond to Christ s call to share their lives more fully with one another and with others As they take the plunge they are discovering the rich meaningful life that Jesus has in mind for all people and pointing the church back to its original calling to be a gathered united community that demonstrates the transforming love of God Of course such a life together with others isn t easy The selections in this volume are by and large written by practitioners people who have pioneered life in intentional community and have discovered in the nitty gritty of daily life what it takes to establish nurture and sustain a Christian community over the long haul Whether you have just begun thinking about communal living are already embarking on sharing life with others or have been part of a community for many years the pieces in this collection will encourage challenge and strengthen you The book s fifty two chapters can be read one a week to ignite meaningful group discussion Contributors include John F Alexander Eberhard Arnold J Heinrich Arnold Johann Christoph Arnold Alden Bass Benedict of Nursia Christoph Friedrich Blumhardt Leonardo Boff Dietrich Bonhoeffer Joan Chittister Stephen B Clark Andy Crouch Dorothy Day Anthony de Mello Elizabeth Dede Catherine de Hueck Doherty Fyodor Dostoyevsky Jenny Duckworth Friedrich Foerster Richard J Foster Jodi Garbison Arthur G Gish Helmut Gollwitzer Adele J Gonzalez Stanley Hauerwas Joseph H Hellerman Roy Hession David Janzen Rufus Jones Emmanuel Katongole Arthur Katz S ren Kierkegaard C Norman Kraus C S Lewis Gerhard Lohfink Ed Loring Chiara Lubich George MacDonald Thomas Merton Hal Miller Jos P Miranda J rgen Moltmann Charles E Moore Henri J M Nouwen Elizabeth O Connor John M Perkins Eugene H Peterson Christine D Pohl Chris Rice Basilea Schlink Howard A Snyder Mother Teresa Thomas Kempis Elton Trueblood and Jonathan Wilson Hartgrove Soulmates David Horn, 2022-05-03 What does it mean to develop true community in our churches and how do we get there For all the vast talk about the nature of the church over the years our understanding of the actual relationship we euphemistically call Christian community is rather thin and incomprehensible Peel away the institutional hard shell around what we understand to be the church and what fleshy relationship lies within In Soulmates David Horn addresses the above questions with creativity wisdom and pastoral love equipping you with a practical roadmap to achieving deeper relationships within your church community By setting the utterly unique relationship fellowship against the backdrop of another important relationship that serves most often as its chief counterfeit friendship Horn seeks to give definition and understanding to true Christian community Covering such topics as the many faces of relationship the nature of friendship the making of community the hospitality of sojourners and aliens and more Soulmates invites readers to understand and move into the uncommon relationship that we as the body of Christ are to engender in one another in our life together a relationship that is far more unique and radical than we often imagine

Paul's Idea of Community Robert Banks,1980 It is in Paul that the most profound and clearly developed understanding of community is found Indeed what the apostle has to say about community is relevant to far more than just the way people get together in churches In this timely study the author examines and clarifies Paul s idea of community placing it in its historical context comparing Paul and the Stoic and Epicurean and Cynical philosophers the Hellenistic mystery cults and first century Judaism and drawing out its significance both sociologically and theologically According to him the essence of Paul idea of community is freedom The freedom that Christ brings to a person means not only independence from selfish desires and from the law but also dependence for the freedom is given by Christ not earned and interdependence it must be lived out in the community Of the several images Paul uses to describe the community the author focuses on two body depicting the goal of development or growth and family depicting the goal of harmony He goes on to discuss the various aspects of the community the physical expressions of community spiritual gifts and their role in the community the role of women and racial minorities in the community and the relationship of Paul himself and his apostolic endeavours to the community

Back cover Living in Christian Community Art Gish,1998-09-29 This book is a description of what the church ought to be Gish purposes to deal with the concrete issues of what it really means to be a Christian community the body of Christ

The Refuge Jim Bakker,2008-04-19 When your world comes crashing down around you there is only one place of safety the Refuge Convinced that many Christians are already experiencing tough times Jim Bakker offers hope to believers showing how to make it through the dark nights and difficult days ahead Security will not be in money or materialism it will be in Christ and His family working to overcome the obstacles in life Drawing upon lessons he learned the hard way Bakker encourages Christians to gather together in one accord to bear one another s burdens to open our hearts to a fresh outpouring of God s supernatural presence in our midst His call for first century Christianity in the twenty first century is radical challenging thoroughly biblical and inspiring

Creative Ways to Build Christian Community Jeanne C. DeFazio,John P. Lathrop,2013-04-10 Creative Ways to Build Christian Community is exactly what its title says it is a very personal practical response to the present and future prospect of isolation a treasure trove of examples and suggestions about how to accomplish the Great Commission from community builders telling how over the years and the ministries they have implemented creative ways to build up churches and organizations to develop more intensive Christian fellowship and thereby create community Dr William David Spencer Christian Community in History Volume 1 Roger Haight, 2004-09-16 Drawing upon the methodology developed in his Dynamics of Theology 1990 and exemplified in Jesus Symbol of God 1999 Roger Haight in this magisterial work achieves what he calls an historical ecclesiology or ecclesiology from below In contrast to traditional ecclesiology from above which is abstract idealist and ahistorical ecclesiology from below is concrete realist and historically conscious In this first of two volumes Haight charts the history of the church's self understandings from the origins of the church in the Jesus movement to the late Middle Ages In volume 2 Haight develops a comparative ecclesiology based on the history and diverse theologies of the worldwide Christian movement from the Reformation to the present While the ultimate focus of the work falls on the structure of the church and its theological self understanding it tries to be faithful to the historical social and political reality of the church in each period When the Church Was a Family Joseph H. Hellerman, 2009-08-01 Spiritual formation occurs primarily in the context of community But as the modern cultural norm of what social scientists call radical American individualism extends itself many Christians grow lax in their relational accountability to the church Faith threatens to become an I not us a my God not our God concern When the Church Was a Family calls believers back to the wisdom of the first century examining the early Christian church from a sociohistorical perspective and applying the findings to the evangelical church in America today With confidence author Joseph Hellerman writes intentionally to traditional church leaders and emerging church visionaries alike believing what is detailed here about Jesus original vision for authentic Christian community will deeply satisfy the relational longings of both audiences The Church on the Margins Mary R. Sawyer, 2003-07-24 Examines the state of the American Christian community from a cross cultural perspective Christ and Community Thomas Slater, 1999-07-01 Slater presents a study of the three major christological images of Revelation and their meanings for the original audience Employing both historical criticism and elements of sociology of knowledge Christ and Community explores the social functions of one like a son of man the Lamb and the Divine Warrior identifying both similarities and dissimilarities The study argues on the one hand that the religious laxity found in Revelation 2:3 reflects attempts by some Christians to accommodate to provincial social pressures while on the other hand Revelation 4:19 reflect the low status of Christians in the cities of Asia Minor One Heart and Soul Trevor John Saxby, 2006 Trevor Saxby's book on intentional Christian community for today combining gritty challenging teaching with people's own stories of life in community Cumulative List of Organizations Described in Section 170 (c) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, 1996 Cumulative List of Organizations Described in Section 170 (c) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954, 2003 Making Neighborhoods Whole Wayne Gordon, John M.
