Core Communication Skills Processes:

Core Communication Sherod Miller, 1997 Oxford Textbook of Communication in Oncology and Palliative Care David W. Kissane, Barry D. Bultz, Phyllis N. Butow, Carma L. Bylund PhD, Simon Noble, Susie Wilkinson, 2017-02-24 Now in paperback the Oxford Textbook of Communication in Oncology and Palliative Care integrates clinical wisdom with empirical findings. Written by an international team of authors it draws upon the history of communication science providing the reader with a comprehensive curriculum for applied communication skills training. An essential resource the Oxford Textbook of Communication in Oncology and Palliative Care is filled with tips and strategies for effective communication in difficult and challenging scenarios. In focusing on cancer and the end of life it deals with the existential and spiritual challenges found across all of medicine providing deep insights into what is at stake and how clinicians might optimally respond. This authoritative and wide ranging book provides clinicians with state of the art and evidence based guidelines to achieve effective patient centred communication in the clinical settings of oncology and palliative care. This edition includes sections on the curriculum for nurses the core curriculum and an introductory section on communication science. The chapters embrace specialty issues across the clinical disciplines from enrolling in clinical trials working in teams and discussing genetic risk to talking about sexuality infertility and intercultural issues. An educational perspective is also provided with chapters covering communication skills training how to evaluate courses and international models of training.
