Lassiter,1998-09-01 Many Kiowas believe that song is a gift from God Its power argues Luke E Lassiter rests in the many ways that community members hear understand and feel it Song has power As I begin to understand what this means for my mentors I am just beginning to understand what this means in my life They are not just singers They are vehicles for something greater than all of us Indeed I now understand that I am not just a singer But I will sing until I die As a boy Lassiter had an early fascination with pow wows This interest eventually went from a hobby to a passion As Lassiter made Kiowa friends who taught him to sing and traveled the pow wow circuit serving many times as a head singer he began to investigate and write about the pow wow as an experiential encounter with song The Power of Kiowa Song shows how song is interpreted created and used by individuals how it is negotiated through the context of an event and how it emerges as a powerfully unique and specific public expression The Power of Kiowa Song presents a collaborative community wide dialogue about the experience of song Using conversations with Kiowa friends as a frame Lassiter seeks to describe the entire experience of song rather than to analyze it solely from a distance Lassiter s Kiowa consultants were extremely active in the writing of the book re explaining concepts that seemed difficult to grasp and discussing the organization and content of the work In a text that is engaging and easily read Lassiter has combined experiential narrative with ethnological theory to create a new form of collaborative ethnography that makes anthropology accessible to everyone This book is designed for anyone interested in Native American studies or anthropology and it also serves as a resource written by and for the Kiowa themselves Hear the Power of Kiowa Song Embodied Curriculum Theory and Research in Arts Education Susan W.
