Better Together Robert D. Putnam, Lewis Feldstein, 2009-12-01 In his acclaimed bestselling book Bowling Alone The Collapse and Revival of American Community Robert Putnam described a thirty year decline in America's social institutions The book ended with the hope that new forms of social connection might be invented in order to revive our communities In Better Together Putnam and longtime civic activist Lewis Feldstein describe some of the diverse locations and most compelling ways in which civic renewal is taking place today In response to civic crises and local problems they say hardworking committed people are reweaving the social fabric all across America often in innovative ways that may turn out to be appropriate for the twenty first century Better Together is a book of stories about people who are building communities to solve specific problems The examples Putnam and Feldstein describe span the country from big cities such as Philadelphia San Francisco and Chicago to the Los Angeles suburbs small Mississippi and Wisconsin towns and quiet rural areas The projects range from the strictly local to that of the men and women of UPS who cover the nation Bowling Alone looked at America from a broad and general perspective Better Together takes us into Catherine Flannery's Roxbury Massachusetts living room a UPS loading dock in Greensboro North Carolina a Philadelphia classroom the Portsmouth New Hampshire naval shipyard and a Bay Area Web site We meet activists driven by their visions each of whom has chosen to succeed by building community Mexican Americans in the Rio Grande Valley who want paved roads running water and decent schools Harvard University clerical workers searching for respect and improved working conditions Waupun Wisconsin schoolchildren organizing to improve safety at a local railroad crossing and merchants in Tupelo Mississippi joining with farmers to improve their economic status As the stories in Better Together demonstrate bringing people together by building on personal relationships remains one of the most effective strategies to enhance America's social health Better Together

Carroll, 2019-06-15 Against the backdrop of a post Soviet state set aflame by geopolitical conflict and violent revolution Narkomania considers whether substance use disorders are everywhere the same and whether our responses to drug use presuppose what kind of people those who use drugs really are Jennifer J Carroll's ethnography is a story about public health and international efforts to quell the spread of HIV Carroll focuses on Ukraine where the prevalence of HIV among people who use drugs is higher than in parts of sub Saharan Africa and unpacks the arguments and myths surrounding medication assisted treatment MAT in Ukraine What she presents in Narkomania forces us to question drug policy its uses and its effects on normal citizens Carroll uses her findings to explore what people who use drugs can teach us about the contemporary societies emerging in post Soviet space With examples of how MAT has been politicized how drug use has been tied to ideas of good citizenship and how vigilantism towards people who use drugs has occurred Narkomania details the cultural and historical backstory of the situation in Ukraine Carroll reveals how global efforts supporting MAT in Ukraine allow the ideas surrounding MAT drug use and HIV to resonate more broadly into international politics and echo into the heart of the Ukrainian public
