Dancing dodo John Gardner,1978 Baranzan's People Carol V. McKinney,2024-01-01 Based on in depth fieldwork research and personal interviews this comprehensive ethnographic study of the Bajju people of southern Kaduna State in Nigeria covers their origins history culture religious beliefs and practices Bajju precolonial political religious organization economy legal system social organization and values are described Also included are chapters on the Hausa Fulani the colonial context the Christian era and cultural change Ethnologists missiologists development personnel and the Bajju themselves will find this a rich resource For me as a Bajju scholar this study is as important as E E Evans Pritchard s classic study Witchcraft Oracles and Magic among the Azande 1937 For that reason all Bajju sons and daughters must read this important work from the foreword by Dr Samuel Waje Kunhiyop Baranzan s People An Ethnohistory of the Bajju of the Middle Belt of Nigeria is a companion volume to Bajju Christian Conversion in the Middle Belt of Nigeria published by SIL International 2019 Emerging Solutions for Musical Arts Education in Africa Pan African Society for Musical Arts Education,2005 Emerging Solutions for Musical arts Education in South Africa offers peer reviewed articles prepared for the 2003 Conference of the Pan African Society for Musical Arts Education in Africa held in Kisumu Maseno Kenya Not only does this publication voice the solutions offered by 31 authors from the African continent and beyond but it presents in a unique and highly accessible fashion the collective voice of the conference participants True to the spirit of ubuntu an individual is only a person through other people their communities this publication is a reflection of the essence of an overarching sub Saharan philosophy the contents represents a conference where papers were not presented but where conference participants engaged to discuss solutions for the musical arts on the African continent While the individual voice has been given its rightful place the collective voice represents an emergent song composed by the scholarly community in oral fashion This publication provides insight into the problems of musical arts education in Africa and solutions for musical arts education Playful Performers David Binkley,2017-07-28 African children develop aesthetic sensibilities at an early age roughly from four to fourteen years By the time they become full fledged adolescents they may have had up to ten years experience with various art forms masking music costuming dancing and performance Aesthetic learning is vital to their maturation The contributors to this volume argue that the idea that learning the aesthetics of a culture only occurs after maturity is false as is the idea that children wearing masks is only play and is not to be taken seriously Playful Performers is a study of children's masquerades in Africa. The contributors describe specific cases of young children's masking in the areas of west central and southern Africa which also happen to be the major areas of adult masquerading. The volume reveals the considerable creativity and ingenuity that children exhibit in preparing costumes, masks and musical instruments and in playing music, dancing, singing and acting. The book includes over 50 pages of black and white photographs which illustrate and elaborate upon the authors' main points. The editors describe general categories of children's masquerades. In each of the three masking categories, children's relationships to their parents and other adults differ from a close relationship to some independence to almost complete independence. No other major work has covered this aspect of African children at this age level. The book offers a challenging perspective on young children, seeing them as active agents in their own culture rather than passive recipients of culture as taught by parents and other elders. It will be interesting reading for anthropologists, art historians, educators and African studies specialists alike. The Yellow Book Henry Harland, Aubrey Beardsley, 1894
