A Philosophy of the Art School Michael Newall, 2018-10-31 Winner of the American Society for Aesthetics 2019 Outstanding Monograph Prize Until now research on art schools has been largely occupied with the facts of particular schools and teachers This book presents a philosophical account of the underlying practices and ideas that have come to shape contemporary art school teaching in the UK US and Europe It analyses two models that hidden beneath the diversity of contemporary artist training have come to dominate art schools The first of these is essentially an old approach a training guided by the artistic values of a single artist teacher The second dates from the 1960s and is based around the group crit in which diverse voices contribute to an artist s development Understanding the underlying principles and possibilities of these two models which sit together in an uneasy tension gives new insights into the character of contemporary art school teaching demonstrating how art schools shape art and artists how they can be a potent engine of creativity in contemporary culture and how they contribute to artistic research A Philosophy of the Art School draws on first hand accounts of art school teaching and is deeply informed by disciplines ranging from art history and art theory to the philosophy of art education and creativity

Silvie Jacobi, 2020-06-15 Art education has a definite impact on artists sense of place and their spatial relations Exploring where and why artists choose to locate is the first step in describing an art scene ethnographically This research considers coming to and going through art school as a crucial inter subjective learning environment Artists learn not just to engage with place through spatial and relational practices but gain a sense of mobility and transnational flows in a globalized art world This book is the first time the art school has been studied this way in the nascent field of art geography blending the tool kits of human geography and urban studies This is timely against the backdrop of worldwide university closures of physical space and cost intensive fine art courses as a triumph of managerialism and business case over education This volume helps highlight how investment in this form of education has an important capacity for nurturing art scenes and feeding into the community at large

Re-imagining the Art School Neil Mulholland, 2019-08-22 This book proposes paragogic methods to re imagine the art academy While art schooling was revolutionised in the early 20th century by the Bauhaus the author argues that many art schools are unwittingly recycling the same modernist pedagogical fashions Stagnating in such traditions today s art schools are blind to recent advances in the scholarship of teaching and learning As discipline based education research in art eternally battles the perceived threat of epistemicide transformative educational practices are rapidly overcoming the perennialism of the art school The author develops critical case studies of open source and peer to peer methods for re imagining the art academy para academia and andragogy paralogy This innovative book will be of interest and value to students and scholars of the art school as well as how the art academy can be reimagined and
