Beating Wife-beating Lee H. Bowker, 1983 Results of a Milwaukee Wisconsin study on wife beating To Have and to Hit Dorothy Ayers Counts, Judith K. Brown, Jacquelyn Campbell, 1999 This vitally important volume places the problem of wife beating in a broad cultural context in a search for strategies to reform societies including our own that are prone to this pernicious form of violence Based on first hand ethnographic data on more than a dozen societies including a number in Oceania this collection explores the social and cultural factors that work either to inhibit or to promote domestic violence against women The volume also includes a study of abuse among nonhuman primates and a cross cultural analysis of the legal aspects of wife beating By presenting counterexamples from other cultures contributors challenge Western assumptions about the factors leading to wife beating Through a close examination of societies where wife beating is infrequent or absent To Have and To Hit identifies the factors economic social political and cultural that must be explored and transformed in order to combat this violence and eventually eliminate it Wife Beating Roger Langley, Richard C.
