Judging God Cedric Keith Johnson, 2012-08 Judging is the cognitive process of reaching a decision or drawing conclusions. In our society we use judging to break the bounds of untruth that some use to control or lead astray while many are left alone because of no harm no foul. Many will come to see that this book entitled Judging God is nothing more than the process that one must use to judge the misconception that many use to control other more than themselves. While others would see a deeper meaning in this concept of Judging God in that Judging God sets the process of freeing one's mind to understand the harm in the concept itself with the foul being we have all been led astray. Judging God brings into play characters that have been left out, concepts that have been removed in order to serve the few to leave the masses in limbo. The conclusion is this: each person that reads this book understands that in life there are no conclusions; we just give up the search. By Judging God we, as a human race, do not judge ourselves to see each other as we are meant to be seen, clearly, mask removed, no longer needing to confuse one another. This is one person's life journey of struggle and conflict with the authority of a God that his follows has caused nothing but confusion and dismay, while in turn has left his believer in a state of denial. This denial has caused them to look away when faced with the possibility of their god being as incomplete as themselves. A small child once asked after suffering the death of a parent, "What has to be a God because I have a lot of questions that need to be answered." We all have questions that need answering. Judging God is the process of identifying his character in order to ask the right questions and getting the right answer. For far too long we have all been asking all the wrong people all the right questions, only to be turned away without our questions being fully answered. Follow me on this journey for I assure you won't be disappointed. Just imagine me as a driver on my way to liberation. I don't mind hitchhiker; some will not make it to the end while some will enter an enlightenment witness like never before and others will not even last a mile, which one will you be?

McWhinney's Textbook of Family Medicine, 2016-02-05 Highly acclaimed in its first three editions, McWhinney's Textbook of Family Medicine is one of the seminal texts in the field. While many family medicine texts simply cover the disorders a practitioner might see in clinical practice, McWhinney's defines the principles and practices of family medicine as a separate and distinct field of practice. The fourth edition presents six new clinical chapters of common problems in family medicine: respiratory illness, musculoskeletal pain, depression, diabetes, obesity, and multimorbidity. This new edition also provides information on stewardship of resources, patient information, and data delivery of care in the home and consultation and referral. The volume also covers continuing advances in the research base of family medicine. Readers will come away with a deeper appreciation for the role of the generalist in healthcare. Psychology Robert Sessions Woodworth, 1927
