Post/human Elaine L. Graham,2002 This work draws together a wide range of literature on contemporary technologies and their ethical implications It focuses on advances in medical reproductive genetic and information technologies Religion, Theology and the Human Sciences Richard H. Roberts,2002 Religion Theology and the Human Sciences explores the religious consequences of the so called end of history and triumph of capitalism as they have impinged upon key institutions of social reproduction in recent times The book explores the imposition of managerial modernity upon successive sectors of society and shows why many people today feel themselves to be oppressed by systems of management that seem to leave them no option but to conform Richard Roberts seeks to challenge and outflank such seamless oppressive modernity through reconfiguration of the religious and spiritual field Cyberpunk and Cyberculture Dani Cavallaro,2000 This text explores and analyses the work of a wide range of writers setting their work in the context of science fiction other literary genres genre cinema and contemporary work on the culture of technology Open Letter ,2000 Technophobia! Daniel Dinello,2005 A timely examination of the conflict between the techno utopia promised by real world scientists and the techno
