Art Historychapter 17 Custom:

Church History, Volume One: From Christ to the Pre-Reformation Everett Ferguson, 2013-11-26 Church History Volume One offers a unique contextual view of how the Christian church spread and grew from its development in the days of Jesus to the years leading up to the Reformation Looking closely at the integral link between the history of the world and that of the church Church History paints a portrait of God s people within its setting of times cultures and events that both influenced and were influenced by the church FEATURES Maps charts and illustrations spanning the time from the first through the thirteenth centuries Overviews of the Roman Greek and Jewish worlds and how they developed or declined Insights into the church s relationship to the Roman Empire with glimpses into pagan attitudes toward Christians Explanations of the role of art architecture literature and philosophy both sacred and secular in the Church Details on the major theological controversies of the periods Each chapter also contains callout passages from Scripture to assist in understanding the narrative of the Church even to the present day as part of the greater narrative of the Bible AUTHOR S PERSPECTIVE Scholar and writer Everett Ferguson wrote this history of the church from the perspective that such a history is the story of the greatest movement and community the world has known It s a human story of a divinely called people who wanted to live by a divine revelation It s a story of how they succeeded and how they failed or fell short of their calling From the Apostle Paul to the apologists and martyrs of the second century to Martin Luther the historical figures detailed are people who have struggled with the meaning of the greatest event in history the coming of the Son of God and with their role in that event and in the lives of God s people

From Bactria to Taprobane Osmund Bopearachchi, 2025-10-27 The second volume of Osmund Bopearachchi has articles and monographs on Central Asian and Indian art South Indian and Sri Lankan art and finally maritime trade in the Indian Ocean While documenting thousands of coins in the Pakistani markets from 1992 onwards Bopearachchi realised that one has to go beyond the traditional approach of simply cataloguing coins and as a result he has made an attempt to link numismatics with sculptural and pictorial iconography His studies on Utpalavarn the courtesan who later became a bhiksun Buddhist nun and on the earliest iconography of Hindu gods like iva Brahm Vi s nu and Var ha have revolutionised our knowledge of these domains His writings giving the results of the archaeological excavations and explorations carried out by the Department of Archaeology and the French Archaeological Mission in Sri Lanka along the estuaries and rivers provide substantial evidence to indicate that in ancient times large ships could cast anchor in the sea close to river mouths and commodities were taken to inland markets using the rivers and waterways His work also shows how the movements caused by these human activities have amalgamated local traditions with foreign identities and created new forms of art and belief His research on sculptures imported to the island from Amar vat N g rjunakonda deals with the inspiration of these schools of art over the early forms of Buddhist sculpture in Sri Lanka The different architectural aspects of the royal palace complex of Sigiriya built by King Kassapa 477 95 CE clearly demonstrate
