Communal Reading in the Time of Jesus Brian J. Wright, 2017-12-01 Much of the contemporary discussion of the Jesus tradition has focused on aspects of oral performance storytelling and social memory on the premise that the practice of communal reading of written texts was a phenomenon documented no earlier than the second century CE Brian J Wright overturns the premise that communal reading of written texts was a phenomenon documented no earlier than the second century CE by examining evidence for its practice in the first century The Life of Christ Ernest De Witt Burton, Shailer Mathews, 1912

The Ethnography of Reading Jonathan Boyarin, 1993-07-14 A very satisfying diverse treatment of a topic that has been ignored because it has been hard to treat George E Marcus Rice University What and how to Read Gustav Adolph Fidelie Van Rhyn, 1875 Christology and Global Ethics Martins, Alexandre A., 2023 This book offers a Christological account developed among the poor in Latin America and their experience of a God incarnated in history It places two realities together the academia where faith is object of studies and the grassroots community where faith is embodied The author introduces the reader to a contemporary Christological discussion from a Latin American liberating perspective with three essential characteristics first it is a Christology created from the reality of the poor and marginalized and at the same time oriented toward this reality as a pastoral resource Second its method goes beyond the polarization Christology from below and Christology from above Third it is a Christological essay that has a biblical text at its center Lk 4 16 30 as a starting point from where important theological disciplines are stressed such as systematic theology moral theology and liturgy In this way this book presents to the readers how different areas of theology are related and form a unity around the mystery of Christ and the faith experience of a Christian community Therefore it is an excellent book to initiate people in theological studies and method that can be used in theological classes in colleges schools and Catholic communities
