Lindquist,2017-07-05 Grounded in archival sources this interdisciplinary study explores the profound historical significance of the mausoleum of the Valois Dukes of Burgundy the Chartreuse de Champmol Although the monument is well known as the site of pivotal works of art by Claus Sluter Melchior Broederlam Jean de Beaumetz and others until now art historians have not considered how these works functioned at the center of a complex social matrix Sherry Lindquist here considers the sacred subjects of the various sculptures and paintings not merely as devotional tools or theological statements but as profoundly influential social instruments that negotiated complex interactions of power Lindquist s sophisticated discussion coordinates analysis of primary sources with the most up to date scholarship in the field of art history not only with respect to late medieval Burgundian art but also to more theoretical questions pertaining to reception

A Writer's Companion Louis D. Rubin, Jr.,1995-09-01 In A Writer s Companion Louis D Rubin Jr has drawn on his years of accumulated wisdom as well as the advice of some fifty prominent writers from various fields to put together in a single volume a vast array of information Organized in such a way as to make it exceptionally easy to use and enhanced by Rubin s graceful and witty prose A Writer's Companion will merit a place on the desk of every serious wordsmith. It is also a book that will bring endless hours of pleasure to anyone who enjoys reading simply for the sake of gaining new knowledge. As Casey Stengel said, "You could look it up." Ulrich's International Periodicals Directory Carolyn Farquhar Ulrich, 2001 Clear and Simple as the Truth Francis-Noël Thomas, Mark Turner, 2011-02-28 For more than a decade Clear and Simple as the Truth has guided readers to consider style not as an elegant accessory of effective prose but as its very heart. Francis Noë l Thomas and Mark Turner present writing as an intellectual activity not a passive application of verbal skills. In classic style the motive is truth the purpose is presentation the reader and writer are intellectual equals and the occasion is informal. This general style of presentation is at home everywhere from business memos to personal letters and from magazine articles to student essays. Everyone talks about style but no one explains it. The authors of this book do and in doing so they provoke the reader to consider style not as an elegant accessory of effective prose but as its very heart. At a time when writing skills have virtually disappeared what can be done? If only people learned the principles of verbal correctness the essential rules wouldn't good prose simply fall into place. Thomas and Turner say no. Attending to rules of grammar sense and sentence structure will no more lead to effective prose than knowing the mechanics of a golf swing will lead to a hole in one. Furthermore ten step programs to better writing exacerbate the problem by failing to recognize as Thomas and Turner point out that there are many styles with different standards. The book is divided into four parts. The first Principles of Classic Style defines the style and contrasts it with a number of others. The Museum is a guided tour through examples of writing both exquisite and execrable. The Studio new to this edition presents a series of structured exercises. Finally Further Readings in Classic Prose offers a list of additional examples drawn from a range of times places and subjects. A companion website classicprose.com offers supplementary examples exhibits and commentary and features a selection of pieces written by students in courses that used Clear and Simple as the Truth as a textbook. France, 2007 Catalogue of Periodicals and Continuations, 1997 Anderson's Travel Companion Sarah Anderson, 1995 For those who want to find out about and read the literature of the countries of their choice this reference is the author's personal selection covering guidebooks books about food history art and architecture religion outdoor activities illustrated books autobiographies and biographies no Subject Guide to Books in Print, 2001 Catalogue Montgomery Ward, 1941 United States Economist, and Dry Goods Reporter, 1909 Reference Guide for Travellers Jack A.
