Das Testament:

Das Testament. Nouvelle Leopold Ritter von Sacher-Masoch, 1882 The History of the Jewish People in the Age of Jesus Christ: Volume 3.i Emil Schürer, Geza Vermes, Fergus Millar, 2014-01-30 Emil Schürer's Geschichte des jüdischen Volkes im Zeitalter Jesu Christi originally published in German between 1874 and 1909 and in English between 1885 and 1891 is a critical presentation of Jewish history, institutions and literature from 175 B.C. to A.D. 135. It has rendered invaluable services to scholars for nearly a century. The present work offers a fresh translation and a revision of the entire subject matter. The bibliographies have been rejuvenated and supplemented; the sources are presented according to the latest scholarly editions and all the new archaeological, epigraphical, numismatic and literary evidence including the Dead Sea Scrolls and the Bar Kokhba documents has been introduced into the survey. Account has also been taken of the progress in historical research both in the classical and Jewish fields. This work reminds students of the profound debt owed to nineteenth century learning, setting it within a wider framework of contemporary knowledge and provides a foundation on which future historians of Judaism in the age of Jesus may build.

Prayers of Jewish Women Markus H. McDowell, 2006
Markus McDowell examines how the literature of the Second Temple period portrays women at prayer through an examination of the literary context and character of those prayers. The goal of this work is a greater understanding of how women were portrayed in literary sources and an offering of some fresh insights for the study of women's religious and social roles in the ancient world. The texts are analyzed and categorized within five areas: social location, content, form, occasion, and gender perspective. The prayers are also compared and contrasted with men's prayers in the same sources. The analysis includes locating as much as possible the historical, literary and cultic context of each document in which these prayers appear. By examining all prayers in these texts uttered by women, not just prayers of named or prominent women, and then comparing them with all the prayers of men in those same texts, certain patterns appear. This study adds to our knowledge of women and religion in Second Temple Judaism by primarily exploring patterns that appear among the prayers in the literature of the Second Temple period. While there are fewer prayers by women than men in this literature, the prayers of women are not portrayed as significantly different from those of men in terms of social location, content, form, or occasion. At the same time, the prayers of women exhibit other patterns of language and, in a minor way, form and occasion that differ from the prayers of men.
