Decolonial Voices Arturo J. Aldama, Naomi Helena Quiñonez, 2002 Decolonial Voices brings together a body of theoretically rigorous interdisciplinary essays that articulate and expand the contours of Chicana and Chicano cultural studies

Literature and Ethnicity in the Cultural Borderlands, 2016-08-29 This volume stems from the idea that the notion of borders and borderlines as clear cut frontiers separating not only political and geographical areas but also cultural linguistic and semiotic spaces does not fully address the complexity of contemporary cultural encounters Centering on a whole range of literary works from the United States and the Caribbean the contributors suggest and discuss different theoretical and methodological grounds to address the literary production taking place across the lines in North American and Caribbean culture The volume represents a pioneering attempt at proposing the concept of the border as a useful paradigm not only for the study of Chicano literature but also for the other American literatures The works presented in the volume illustrate various aspects and manifestations of the textual border lands and explore the double voiced discourse of border texts by writers like Harriet E Wilson Rudolfo Anaya Toni Morrison Cormac McCarthy Louise Erdrich Helena Viramontes Paule Marshall and Monica Sone among others This book is of interest for scholars and researchers in the field of comparative American studies and ethnic studies

Borders, Boundaries, and Frames Mae Henderson, 2013-10-31 The essays in this volume take up the challenge of working out or reworking the problematics of the borders the boundaries and the frameworks that structure our various and multiple notions of identity textual personal collective generic and disciplinary The contributors to this volume write about subjects and are often themselves subjects who refuse to occupy a single territory who cross geographical cultural national linguistic generic specular and disciplinary borders Essays by Kathryn Hellerstein Anita Goldman Jane Marcus and Scott Malcomson explore the semiotics of exile and the problem of its representation in the lives and writings of individual artists and intellectuals Autobiographical criticism as represented in the essays by Nancy Miller and Sara Suleri enlargess our conventional notions of what constitutes literature in general and criticism in particular
