American Streamlined Design:

American Streamlined Design David A. Hanks, Anne Hoy, 2005-08-30 The twentieth century loved machines and the speed they made possible Speeding cars trains and planes promised to conquer space and time their aerodynamic styling and metal skins embodied a new and modern beauty one that especially enchanted American designers from the late 1920s through the 1950s Streamlining became the popular American style for all sorts of objects from toy scooters to typewriters from power tools to teakettles This book celebrates this beauty as epitomized by the work of Raymond Loewy Kem Weber Henry Dreyfuss Norman Bel Geddes as well as in works by many lesser known industrial designers whose products are presented here for the first time The book also demonstrates the resurgence of interest in streamlining among international vanguard designers from the 1980s to the present This volume is illustrated with patent drawings and period photographs showing how these dynamically styled objects were used The one hundred eighty objects presented here drawn from the Eric Brill Collection recently donated to the American Friends of Canada and supplemented by pieces from the Stewart Collection at the Montreal Museum of Fine Arts were photographed for this book A full bibliography biographies of the designers and index complete the study BOOK JACKET American Streamlined Design, 2011 Catalog of an exhibition held Feb 6 May 15 2011 at the Philbrook Museum of Art in Tulsa Oklahoma Raymond Loewy and Streamlined Design Philippe Tretiack, 1999 From car and train design to product packaging Raymond Loewy has left an indelible stamp on American culture Over the 70 years of his career Loewy known for streamlined design created mythical objects which came to be associated with the very Image of America itself the Coca Cola bottle and truck the Greyhound bus the package of Lucky Strike cigarettes the Studebaker automobile and much more This remarkable book recounts the hidden captivating story of a key figure in the history of American design and includes period and current photos of his most notable designs Partners in Design David A. Hanks, 2015-10-27 The 1920s and 1930s saw the birth of modernism in the United States a new aesthetic based on the principles of the Bauhaus in Germany its merging of architecture with fine and applied arts and rational functional design devoid of ornament and without reference to historical styles Alfred H Barr Jr the then 27 year old founding director of the Museum of Modern Art and 23 year old Philip Johnson director of its architecture department were the visionary young proponents of the modern approach Shortly after meeting at Wellesley College where Barr taught art history and as Johnson finished his studies in philosophy at Harvard they set out on a path that would transform the museum world and change the course of design in America The Museum of Modern Art opened just over a week after the stock market crash of 1929 In the depths of the Depression using as their laboratories both MoMA and their own apartments in New York City Barr and Johnson experimented with new ideas in museum ideology extending the scope beyond painting and sculpture to include architecture photography graphic design furniture industrial design and film with exhibitions of ordinary machine made objects including ball bearings and kitchenware elevated to art by their elegant design and with installations in dramatically lit galleries with smooth white walls Partners in Design which accompanies an exhibition opening at the Montreal Museum of Fine Arts in April 2016 chronicles their collaboration placing it in the larger context of the avant garde in New York 1930s salons where they mingled with Julien Levy the gallerist who brought Surrealism to the United States and Lincoln Kirstein co founder of the New York City Ballet their work to help Bauhaus artists like Josef and Anni Albers escape Nazi Germany and the dissemination of their ideas across the United States through MoMA s traveling exhibition program Plentifully illustrated with icons of modernist design MoMA installation views and previously unpublished images of the Barr and Johnson apartments domestic laboratories for modernism and in Johnson s case designed and furnished by Ludwig Mies van der Rohe this fascinating study sheds new light on the introduction and success in North America of a new kind of modernism thanks to the combined efforts of two uniquely discerning and influential individuals
